

Ike Pledges Full Cooperation With Summit Inquiries

Investigations Have Approval, He Tells Visiting Congressmen

Washington — President Eisenhower today pledged full cooperation with congressional inquiries into the summit conference collapse.

The president talked with the leaders of both parties at a White House breakfast. After the session senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas quoted Eisenhower as saying the planned investigations at the capitol have his full approval.

Eisenhower called in the Democratic and Republican chiefs for a briefing on the background of the Paris summit blow-up. The congressional leaders provided no immediate detail but presumably the general outline was much the same as the president's radio-television report to the nation last night.

Approves Inquiry

Johnson's report that Eisenhower pledged full cooperation with congressional inquiry committees was echoed by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the GOP leader.

Dirksen said Eisenhower "thoroughly approved of the inquiry being conducted by the senate foreign relations committee."

Dirksen added that the president appreciated the bipartisan backing he has received and made "a plea for unanimity of spirit and feeling."

Some of the other legislators who attended, who asked not to be quoted by name, described the discussion as friendly and general.

Johnson said the planned investigations have Eisenhower's "wholehearted approval," and the administration plans to extend full cooperation.

Outline Plans

The Democratic leader called the breakfast session a very enjoyable meeting. He said those present were invited to ask questions, and did so.

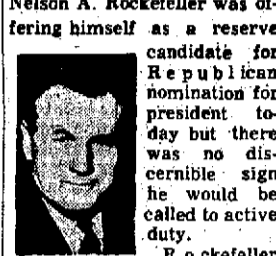

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark) chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations, said Eisenhower "thoroughly approved of the inquiry being conducted by the senate foreign relations committee."

Dirksen said Eisenhower "thoroughly approved of the inquiry being conducted by the senate foreign relations committee."

Rockefeller in Position Now to Accept Draft

Offers Himself as Reserve Candidate For GOP Nomination

Albany, N. Y. — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was offering himself as a reserve candidate for Republican nomination for president today but there was no discernible sign he would be called to active duty.

Rockefeller said yesterday he would accept a draft to run as GOP candidate for president, a development possible only if the party rejects Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

But Rockefeller agreed with the almost unanimous view that Nixon's nomination "obviously is to be expected."

Only Candidate

Nixon remains the party's only declared candidate. He has more than enough votes, by unofficial count, to win nomination on the first ballot. He also has the backing of President Eisenhower.

Rockefeller's current assets as a contender include the assumption he would get all 96 of New York's convention votes plus one Arkansas vote pledged to him and a New Jersey vote promised if a floor fight developed.

A majority of 666 of the 1,331 delegates will be needed for nomination at the convention, which opens July 28 in Chicago.

Basically, Rockefeller's entire strategy is keyed to the possibility, however remote, that something might happen between now and convention time to turn the party away from Nixon.

Changing Times

"These are very fast changing times," Rockefeller told a news conference he held after explaining his position to a meeting of Republican state leaders.

Rockefeller sees himself as a candidate the party could turn to if Nixon were forced to drop out of the running. The governor would not speculate on what he considers possible developments that could affect Nixon's position, and the governor said, he will neither encourage nor authorize any campaigning in his behalf.

Continue Dealing With Reds, President Urges

Cites Need to Maintain National Strength and Improve World Conditions

Washington — America must continue businesslike dealings with the Soviet leaders, keep up its strength and improve world conditions in which human freedom can flourish, President Eisenhower declared Wednesday night.

"I think," Eisenhower told the nation, "we must not write the record all in red ink. There are several things to be written in black."

In a radio-TV report to the nation on the summit collapse last week, the president conceded that Soviet action leading to that collapse "has turned the clock back in some measure."

But he added that it should be noted that Soviet Premier Khrushchev "did not go beyond invective — a timeworn Soviet device to achieve an immediate objective."

Russ Leaders Refuse to Let People Hear Ike

The White House said today "It is obvious the Russian leaders did not have the courage to let the Russian people hear the president's speech."

The live broadcast English version went through unhindered as expected, but that was at 3:30 a.m. Moscow time, an hour when few listeners, even if they could understand the language, would be at their sets. The first Russian translation went out at 5:30 a.m. Moscow time and the first 10 minutes of it went through. Then the Soviets "turned on everything,"

Asks Boost in Defense Funds

Senator Declares Free World in 'Dangerous Period'

Washington — Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.) today urged an immediate $2 billion increase in defense funds because of what he called brash and bellicose moves by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

"As a result of the wrecking of the summit conference by Mr. Khrushchev," Jackson said this country and the free world are "in one of the most dangerous periods of the cold war."

Jackson, a member of the senate armed services and senate-house atomic committees, prepared his appeal for the senate appropriations committee. That group is considering President Eisenhower's $39 billion defense budget for the fiscal year that starts July 1.

He urged that nearly $1 billion of increases voted by the house be retained and that more than a billion of other military funds—including some cut out by the house—also be added.

In addition, Jackson said, the president should be authorized to go into the red "at any time he can exploit opportunities to accelerate the Polaris and Minuteman programs."

The Polaris is the ballistic missile designed to be launched from nuclear submarines. The Minuteman is a solid propellant long range ballistic missile designed to be mobile or fired from protected underground sites.

Russian Seaman Grateful for American Care

Atlantic City, N. J. — Russian Seaman Ivan Baluk leaves today, grateful for the American medical care that nursed him back to good health.

The Soviet trawler Masalsk, fishing offshore, got permission to return to pick up its 26-year-old crewman, the coast guard said. The trawler brought Baluk here last weekend after he became ill at sea.

Soviet embassy officials Nikolai G. Reznichenko and Viktor A. Osipov made the final arrangements for Baluk's release from Atlantic City hospital. Osipov praised the treatment and said any American in similar need could be assured of the same care from the Soviet Union.

Doctors pronounced the ruddy-faced Kaliningrad seafarer recovered yesterday from his sickness, an upper respiratory infection complicated by adverse reaction to sulfa drugs administered at sea.

Senate Declares Budget Balanced

State Lawmakers Move to End Session Without Increasing Taxes

Madison — The Wisconsin senate—in a move to end the legislative session without raising taxes to cover a $4,088,000 deficit—has declared the state budget balanced.

The Republican-controlled upper house set the stage for the declaration by voting, 19-13, to kill Gov. Gaylord Nelson's proposal to balance the budget with a franchise tax on banks. The action Wednesday night disposed of the last tax bill pending in the legislature.

Identical Margin

Then, by an identical margin, the lawmakers passed the resolution declaring the budget balanced. Sen. Robert Knowles, R-New Richmond, joined the senate's 12 Democrats voting against the measure.

The resolution still must be acted upon by the assembly, controlled by Democrats. There was no immediate comment on its chances there.

Senate Republicans contended continued economic prosperity would boost tax receipts enough to wipe out the deficit by July 1, 1961. The action also means the 25 per cent surtax would revert back to 20 per cent for the biennium's second year.

The senate position was taken in the face of an attorney general's opinion that failure to balance the budget "would constitute an abdication of legislative responsibility." It was prepared at the governor's request.

Knowles said he cast his vote against the resolution because it did not direct the board of government operations to cut back spending as needed to prevent a deficit.

Conservative Data

Sen. Kirby Hendee, R-Milwaukee, a member of the joint finance committee, contended the deficit figure had been estimated on the basis of "conservative" data.

"The trend of our economy," he said, "will take care of it."

The governor said last week an "astounding" upswing in the state's economy had reduced a deficit once estimated at $234 million down to the $4 million figure.

Nelson recommended levying a franchise tax on banks and savings and loan institutions, or if that couldn't be done, continuation of the 25 per cent surtax during the biennium's second year.

Thousands of Japanese Riot

Besiege Parliament In Protest Against U. S. Peace Treaty

Tokyo — Hundreds of thousands of Japanese besieged the parliament building until far in the night Thursday, demonstrating against the new military alliance with the United States and imprisoning Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi inside the building.

It was the most massive of the demonstrations staged daily since the lower house of parliament ratified the new U. S.-Japan mutual defense treaty last Wednesday.

Shouts of "Ike don't come!" and "down with Prime Minister Kishi!" filled the air. The demonstration was organized by the socialist party, Kishi's chief opposition in parliament, and the leftist sohyo labor federation.

Earlier the demonstrators adopted a resolution accusing America of imperialism, calling on the U. S. congress not to ratify the security treaty and opposing President Eisenhower's trip to Japan.

He is scheduled to arrive June 10, the day the treaty becomes effective unless the upper house of parliament ratifies it sooner.

Israeli Fighter Pilots Shoot Down Egyptian Plane

Tel Aviv, Israel — Israeli fighters today shot down an Egyptian army plane near the Israeli-Egyptian border, an Israeli army spokesman announced.

The official statement said four Egyptian MIGs crossed the northern Sinai desert border into the Israeli-Egyptian border, an Israeli army spokesman announced.

The Egyptian planes were intercepted after they had penetrated some 2 to 3 kilometers (1.2 to 1.8 miles) into Israeli airspace over the southern Negev desert, the spokesman said.

He added that both Israeli planes and their crews returned safely to their base.

United Nations, N. Y. — The UN security council rejected by a one-sided vote today a Soviet attempt to brand the United States as an aggressor for sending spy planes over Russian territory.

Despite a vigorous last-minute attack on the United States, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko failed to win any western or neutral support for his tough resolution.

The vote was 2 in favor, 7 against and 2 abstaining. Only communist Poland joined the Soviet Union in voting for the proposal. Tunisia and Ceylon abstained.

United Nations, N. Y. — The Soviet Union today blasted President Eisenhower's address to the nation as confirmation of "a dangerous policy" and declared the speech could only aggravate the situation.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko bluntly rejected Eisenhower's bid for an international aerial surveillance system as another scheme to spy on the Soviet Union. At the same time, he warned that any new violations of Soviet air space would be "duly repulsed."

Gromyko said: "The statement of the president is not satisfactory. It does not change the situation. I would say in reality that it only aggravates the situation because it is the confirmation of the dangerous policy of the United States in regard to the Soviet Union."

The Soviet foreign minister once more used blunt language to say the United States was "duly repulsed."

American Pilot Says Soviet Jets Fired on Plane to Force It Down

Wiesbaden, Germany — Six Soviet MIG jets fired machine gun bursts to force a U.S. air force transport plane to land in East Germany last Friday. Then the Russians went out of their way to make the nine Americans aboard comfortable.

"The Russians helped us out in any way they could for our comfort," the pilot of the C47, Capt. James Lundy of Findlay, Ohio, told a news conference today.

Russian interrogators only casually mentioned the U2 spy plane, the incident that had plunged U. S. - Soviet relations to a new low Lundy said. At no time did the Russians try to connect the U2 incident with the C47, he added.

False Information

Lundy, grounded by the air force after his return, blamed false wind information for straying into East Germany.

The machine gun fire did not hit the C47.

The other eight Americans reported food and treatment good. Put up at Soviet headquarters, the men played volleyball with the Russians. The one woman passenger was visited by a Soviet officer's wife.

The C47 and its crew of six and three passengers reached Wiesbaden last night after the Russians allowed the plane to take off from the muddy field where it landed.

Bad Weather

The battered old air force C47 strayed 22 miles into East Germany while on a flight from Copenhagen to Hamburg. The Russians released the plane and the nine Americans Tuesday but bad weather prevented their flying to the west until last night.

The air force, in grounding the 41-year-old pilot for investigation, said he "clearly had violated pertinent flying directions."

The pilot said weathermen in Copenhagen reported an easterly wind but it actually was a westerly wind.

Official Death Toll Has 2,829 Dead or Missing in Chile

Santiago, Chile — No respite appeared in sight today for southern Chile, wrecked by five days of continuing earthquakes, tidal waves, avalanches and volcanic eruptions.

The official death toll so far was 2,829 dead or missing, 2 million—a fourth of the nation's population — homeless and $300 million property damage. And the count was mounting steadily.

The terror-stricken homeless huddled in open fields or in the mountains to which they had fled, or plodded away from the scenes of destruction, fearful of further

Answers Critics On Spy Plane Incident

Eisenhower Explains Why Flight Was Made Just Before Summit, False Statement Was Made First

Washington—President Eisenhower has given answers to some of the questions most frequently raised by Democrats and other critics of the handling of the U2 spy plane flight.

Two of these questions were posed by the president in his television speech to the nation last night. They were:

1. Why was the spy plane sent over Russia just two weeks before the summit conference?

2. Why was a false statement issued at first that the flight was just for gathering weather information and had penetrated Russia accidentally?

Answers Given

These are the answers Eisenhower gave:

"As to the timing, the question was really whether to halt the program and thus forego the gathering of important information that was essential and that was likely to be unavailable at a later date. The decision was the program should not be halted."

"Next, as to our government's initial statement about the flight, this was issued to protect the pilot, his mission, and our intelligence processes, at a time when the true facts were still undetermined... what is known in intelligence circles as a 'covering statement' was issued."

"It was issued on assumptions that were later proved incorrect. Consequently, when later the status of the pilot was definitely established, and there was no further possibility of avoiding the exposure of the project, the factual details were set forth."

World-Wide Alert

Eisenhower also answered another question that has been asked about the events leading to the collapse of the summit: Why did the president allow Sec. of Defense Thomas S. Gates to order a world-wide alert test of U.S. armed forces the night before the summit meeting was to start?

The president said "While the secretary of defense and I were in Paris, we were, of course, away from our normal command posts. He recommended that under these circumstances we test the continuing readiness of our military communications. I personally approved. Such tests are valuable and will be frequently repeated in the future."

Douglas Raps Wiley Over Diversion Bill

Illinois Senator Says Milwaukee Has 'Dirty Habits'

Washington—Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) was accused of bottling up the Lake Michigan water diversion bill and Milwaukee was called a city with dirty habits Wednesday by Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.).

"Language fails me," lamented Douglas in a senate speech highly critical of Wiley.

He told the senate he could not adequately voice his views about Wiley without running afoul of Senate Rule 19, which forbids members to impugn each other's motives.

Speaking frankly, Douglas said, the rule "would be smashed to smithereens."

Sen. William Proxmire (D-Wis.), who unlike Wiley was present for Douglas' speech, told the senate Douglas had indeed violated the rule but he did not attempt to invoke the rule against Douglas.

Douglas complained that Wiley, senior Republican on the senate foreign relations committee, worked with his New England "allies" on the committee to repeatedly block any move to hold hearings on the diversion bill.

Proxmire fired back that no bill in the history of the senate has been so thoroughly heard by committee after committee as the diversion bill and no further hearings are necessary.

The disputed diversion bill would authorize Chicago to take an additional 1,000 cubic feet of water a second from Lake Michigan to flush its sewers.

Douglas, who made no attempt to hide his displeasure, said Milwaukee was guilty of "dirty habits" for returning treated sewage into Lake Michigan. Proxmire also suggested that Douglas was violating a senate rule against offensive references to a state in saying that Milwaukee has dirty habits.

FBI Nabs Man 50 Feet Under

Long Beach, Calif. —John Richard Merit, one of the FBI's 10 most wanted men, got into deeper water than he bargained for when he enrolled in a diving school.

He was 50 feet under Wednesday, in a diving suit, when police boarded the barge he was diving from and ordered him hauled up.

Merit, 28, was wanted for a $9,000 bank robbery in Atlanta, Ga., April 10. Police, who made the arrest on a tip, said Merit told them he invested $600 of the robbery loot in a diving course.

They said they found a pistol in his car and two more in his hotel room. In a suitcase, they said, was an Atlanta newspaper containing a story of the robbery.

Gratified for Probe

Election Practices Will be Checked in West Virginia

Logan, W. Va. —(AP) Word that the justice department is looking into charges of shady practices in West Virginia's May 10 primary was received with gratification by those who asked for the probe here.

But they still plan a June 6 trip to Washington to state their case personally before the justice department's civil rights division.

Three young men—a doctor, school teacher, and attorney—are behind most of the efforts in Logan county to have the election investigated. They contend there was widespread ballot-box stuffing, vote buying, and other irregularities.

The balloting 16 days ago involved the Democratic presidential preference primary, won by Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts over Sen.

Former Vice President John N. Garner examines a Johnson-for-President poster at his home in Uvalde, Texas. The 91-year-old Democrat accepted honorary chairmanship of a $50 a plate dinner for Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson to be held in Austin June 13 on the eve of the state Democratic convention. Friends of Garner say the old timer will attend if his health permits.

Internal Dissension Threat to Korean Army

America's Top Soldier Warns Against Shaking Up Top Command of Forces

Seoul, Korea —(AP) America's top soldier in Korea warned today the South Korean army, the largest in non-communist Asia, is threatened by internal dissension in its officer corps.

Gen. Carter Magruder, the U.N. commander, called for new unity in the army, which he described as "one of the greatest forces for stability, for law and order in Korea."

Only yesterday he warned the caretaker government against going too far in shaking up the top command as a result of charges the army was involved in the rigging of last March's presidential elections.

Speaks at Ceremonies

Today, speaking at ceremonies installing Lt. Gen. Choi Yung-hi as new army chief of staff to succeed Lt. Gen. Song Yo-chan, Magruder said:

"In my opinion the greatest threat against the prestige of the army is internal dissension. Now is no time for junior officers to work off grudges against senior officers."

"Now is no time for junior officers to accuse seniors of irregularities committed in the past when those same junior officers maintained silence or even participated at the time when the irregularities are supposed to have taken place."

Magruder's remarks underscored growing concern of American military leaders about the effects of investigations into the army's role in politics. The United States has poured millions of dollars into the Korean army.

Maintained Law

Magruder praised outgoing Gen. Song for increasing Korean army efficiency and for maintaining law and order without bloodshed as martial law commander during the uprising. He urged Choi to halt the army investigation.

Song has been credited with heading off a blood bath in the student uprising and with

Bill Sponsors Face Battle in House Today

Opponents May Group Against School Aid Measure

Washington —(AP) Sponsors of a $975 million school construction bill face a battle in the house today from both friends and foes of federal aid to public schools.

The determined opponents, mainly Republicans and southern Democrats, are expected to join forces in an attempt to throttle the bill.

The ardent supporters could achieve the same result by building it up until it is practically certain to draw a presidential veto.

Author of Bill

Rep. Frank Thompson, Jr. (D-N.J.), author of the bill, told the house today in the opening of debate Wednesday that it had been carefully tailored to attract the maximum number of votes and the least risk of a veto.

The threat of a veto was raised anew, however, by Arthur S. Flemming, secretary of health, education and welfare. Following a White House conference Flemming released a letter to Rep. Carroll D. Keams (R-Pa.) hinting strongly at a veto unless the bill is altered.

He said the administration insisted on making states match all federal funds and allocating a proportionately greater share of the money to poorer states. The Thompson will would authorize outright grants the first year and require matching funds for the final two years of the 3-year program. Allocations to states are based on the number of school age children, regardless of the needs of individual states.

Voting on both proposals was expected today.

Pope Proclaims Cardinal Saint

Rome —(AP) Pope John XXIII today proclaimed the sainthood of Gregorio Cardinal Barbarigo, 17th century Italian bishop of Bergamo and Padua noted for his reorganization of ecclesiastical studies and seminaries.

The canonization ceremony was in the Basilica of St. John Lateran — the pope's episcopal see as bishop of Rome.

Such ceremonies are normally in St. Peter's basilica. For the first time in more than 200 years they were held in St. John Lateran because it is the site of one of the major seminaries of the Roman Catholic church.

Gregorio Barbarigo was born in Venice Sept. 16, 1625. During his long years as a cardinal, the zealous, ascetic prelate was several times a candidate for pope, but each time he avoided election to the high office and supported the candidacy of other men. He died at Padua June 18, 1697.

Senate Gets Proposal On Secretary's Post

Plan Would Make State Official President's Chief Officer on Security

Washington —(AP) A plan to make the secretary of state the president's chief officer of all national security affairs—including overseas military matters—was offered to the senate today.

George F. Kennan, former ambassador to Russia, said this proposal would give the United States "a better coordination of military policy with national policy generally than we have had in recent years."

Cold War Decisions

His testimony was prepared for the subcommittee on national policy machinery headed by Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.). The hearings are aimed at finding and eliminating the causes of lapses, delays and rigidities in the government's decision-making process.

Kennan avoided reference to any specific cold war decisions, including the handling of the U2 spy plane incident and other events preceding the collapse of the summit meeting last week.

But Kennan said "organizational deficiencies" and "cumbersomeness of our governmental machinery" have been important factors in "hampering our performance as a world power."

He deplored what he called the "contagion of bigness" in the government and a growing tendency to use advisory committees in seeking policy decisions. The committee system produces "endless compromises" and weak decisions, he said.

If a committee's disagreement is "bucked to the next higher level" Kennan testified, "the result usually is that the same process of compromise is merely repeated there."

Kennan headed the state department's policy planning staff under the late former secretary, Gen. George C. Marshall. He now is a professor at the Institute for Advanced Studies, Princeton, N. J. In many respects his testimony concurred with that of former Sec. of Defense Robert A. Lovett, a Republican banker who was secretary of defense in the Truman administration. Lovett had suggested creation of the post of secretary of foreign affairs.

Misaligned Bones Predispose You To Arthritis

The correction of faulty body mechanics is important in the cure of arthritis, confirms J. G. Kuhns, M.D., writing in a recent issue of the Physiotherapy Review. His views show acceptance of the Chiropractic principle:

"Chronic arthritis occurs less frequently in joints where normal function is not disturbed. Normal function in a joint is dependent mechanically upon proper anatomical alignment of the bones. In faulty body mechanics, often all these may be wrong. This is seen particularly well in the spine and lower extremities. When the body is badly poised, weight is often not well balanced over supporting structures. Muscular pull and tension are altered from the changed alignment of the body."

A Chiropractor is needed to correct faulty body mechanics.

Expect 500 at 32nd Fox Valley Safety Meeting

Speakers, Exhibits Demonstrations Highlight Program

Between 500 and 700 people are expected to attend the 32nd annual Fox Valley and Lake Shore Safety conference June 18 in Oshkosh.

Sixteen exhibitors will have safety equipment on display. The conference is being sponsored by the Oshkosh Safety Council, Wisconsin Council of Safety, and Wisconsin Industrial commission in cooperation with 10 safety groups. The all-day session will begin at 9:30 a. m. with registration at Webster Stanley school. Demonstrations of land and water safety will be held at noon at Menominee park.

Rescue Breathing Among the morning speakers are Paul Jones, of the Na-

Republicans Endorse Mr. Kuehn

Republicans meeting in Milwaukee faced up to their responsibilities and endorsed Philip Kuehn for governor.

Kuehn, a Milwaukee businessman, has been actively campaigning for the endorsement for several months. At the same time Jack Olson of Wisconsin Dells has been carrying on an active campaign for support of the same delegates. However, at the opening of the convention Olson withdrew his name from the contest, claiming that he felt the convention had been rigged against him. However, he did not withdraw as a candidate for the nomination and has reserved his right to make final decision as to whether he will oppose Kuehn in the primary.

The 2,272 delegates at the convention gave Kuehn 1,808 votes. This left 464 votes, of which 239 were cast as "present" indicating the voters did not favor endorsement. Although Olson's name was not before the convention he received 206 votes, leaving 19 votes divided among several others, none of whom were seeking the endorsement. Even though Kuehn received an overwhelming majority, there are those who are suggesting that opposition to him may be stronger than indicated by the votes because the convention failed to nominate him by acclamation and he was the only active candidate seeking the endorsement.

As there are a great many strong personalities in the Republican party in Wisconsin, several of whom have been proposed for the office of governor on other occasions, it seems only natural that as many as 225 of the 2,272 delegates might have feelings on the matter strong enough to make them want to support someone other than a man they knew would receive the endorsement. Mr. Kuehn has accepted the endorsement with the declaration that he will "continue to speak out on the issues which are important to the people of Wisconsin." That is a promise we are confident Mr. Kuehn will keep and therefore we look forward to an interesting discussion of Wisconsin's problems in the months ahead.

In spite of the fact recent reports indicate Wisconsin's treasury is in good shape, there is apparent agreement between the leaders of both parties on the proposition that Wisconsin tax laws need revision and change. The most recent gubernatorial contest was carried on between two candidates, both of whom appeared determined not to make any pronouncement upon the tax question other than to declare frequently that they would veto a sales tax. Obviously such campaign talk was not enlightening.

Confused Cyrus Eaton

The Logan Act forbids private American citizens to negotiate with foreign powers in an effort to influence United States foreign policy. It is not an easy statute to interpret. Sen. Thomas Dodd of Connecticut wants the foggy multimillionaire, Cyrus Eaton, of Cleveland, to be prosecuted under the act following his airport chat with Nikita Khrushchev.

It is doubtful that anything Eaton says or does will influence American policy and only a man like Eaton can believe that Khrushchev is sincere in his statements about "understanding and friendship" between the two countries. But Khrushchev was certainly telling the truth when he told Eaton that he wished all capitalists were like him.

The Knights' Reward

The Knights of Columbus council in Farmington, Mich., really should have known better. The group planned to turn a woman loose in a supermarket for 15 minutes and let her take as much as she could in that time — yet, make money.

The Knights found it just couldn't be done, for a 20-year-old woman — a mere slip of a girl — has them holding the bag with a $136 deficit on their money-raising venture.

In the somber light of momentous international events of the day this might be looked upon as a rather insignificant occurrence, yet it makes abundantly clear a truism of which almost every husband is aware: Never underestimate a woman.

Electronics in the Woods

The scientists and technicians at Cape Canaveral live a life of intense pressure and tension as they prepare new rockets for experiments in outer space, and must feel close to utter frustration when one of the flying giants runs amuck thousands of miles in the atmosphere.

It might help them to know, however, that their problems are no more frustrating than that of being manager of a telephone company in northern Minnesota.

The manager of such a company at

The people chose a governor not knowing for sure what they could expect in the way of tax legislation. During the greater part of Gov. Nelson's administration various tax committees have been studying the impact of the present tax program upon the state's economy and looking into the future to determine how the tax laws may be altered to improve their fairness and efficiency, but decisions have been avoided.

The Republican convention gave Mr. Kuehn a platform calling for relief from the surtax on incomes and from the heavy real estate and personal property taxes which now are burdening many citizens. This same proposal has been suggested by Gov. Nelson's tax study committee. The study committee is not a partisan committee although it was appointed by the governor. It is representative of many segments of the population. In fact, Mayor Greene of Sturgeon Bay, a member of this committee, said the committee is so representative of the public that it has the same problem of reaching an agreement that the public has. Thus far both the study commission and the Republican party at least are in agreement as to where the relief should be applied so that the question remaining is where to get the revenue to bring about this relief.

It frequently has been charged that the present administration has been striving hard to keep this issue from dominating the gubernatorial campaign. We think that the taxation is an issue which should be argued openly and frankly before the people of Wisconsin to the end that whoever is chosen for this office will have some indication in the balloting of the desires of the people.

The discovery of the greatly increased state revenue due to general business prosperity has been hailed by some partisans as a means of postponing the decision on tax legislation. The fact of the matter is that a sudden upturn in tax revenue is only another strong indication of the need for tax revision. A treasury income which fluctuates as much as $20,000,000 to $30,000,000 in a single year scarcely can be called stable. And the danger of course is that in some future year the income will fall to the same extent or even to a greater extent than it has increased in the past year. Such a downturn would be disastrous and the time to prevent such a tremendous loss is now.

Nothing could be more beneficial to the people of Wisconsin than to have a frank discussion and a clear understanding of just where candidates stand on this subject. Mr. Kuehn has promised to do his part. It is to be hoped that the Democratic candidate will do the same.

Eaton met the Russian premier on a visit to Moscow two years ago. He bumbled so much about the Russian's friendly attitude that he received three white horses and a troika for them to pull around his extensive estate in Ohio. Now he and his wife are off for a tour through various Iron Curtain countries where we may be sure they will be escorted with courtesy and enthusiasm and shown all the marvels of the Red regimes.

The future is bright for Eaton, too. Khrushchev told him at Paris that when communism takes over the world he will put in a good word for him. Eaton will have his glorious reward. Perhaps, in the Biblical sense, he already has it.

The Knights figured the most a person could cart out in 15 minutes would be about $400 worth of merchandise. So, trying to raise money for a new building, they sold raffle tickets with the 15-minute grab bag as first prize. They figured they'd wind up with at least $100 for the building fund. But the young lady loaded up with steaks, nylons, cigarettes and records to the tune of $771.60.

In the wisdom that comes in retrospect, store managers voiced amazement, the Knights began looking for new, less costly ways to raise money and husbands everywhere nodded in sympathy — every husband, that is, who has followed his wife through a supermarket and picked up the tab afterward.

and pencils which vest pockets provide.

Also some may yearn to display again the gold watch chain with the elk's tooth.

But for many of us our first vest in years will be a disappointment. It will not fit as neatly over the middle-age paunch as it did on the slim, trim figure of yesterday.

A bulging strip of shirting between vest and trousers is bound to detract from the English look which designers say will return with the vest.

Maybe it would be better for the majority if the tailors skipped the vest and used the cloth to enlarge those awkward pipestem pants now in fashion.

Something for Mr. K. to Remember!

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Citizens and Council of Neenah:

One of the very few awakening citizens had an article in a letter to the editor which stated that I said the sewer problems should be forgotten in favor of the Neenah Foundry's "what are you going to do about it" attitude on air pollution.

I agree with the writer that the sewer problem is a real and urgent problem but this problem can be alleviated by the people themselves to a great extent. The people cannot do anything about our flagrant air pollution problem because of the timidity of our city council to act in the interests of its private citizens.

The sewer problems should, in my opinion, be approached as follows:

1. The complete sewer system should be examined to close off any possible leaks or cross connections between the storm and sanitary sewers.

2. Whether the people realize it or not, the sanitary sewer system is more than adequately sized. Anyone with a little common sense can see this. If it weren't adequate enough, the sewer would be flooding basements every day of the year instead of only during heavy rainstorms. The council should put in force immediately an ordinance requiring all drain tile to be disconnected from the sanitary sewer system and have sump pumps installed. This cannot be a haphazard installation. It has to be a 100 per cent installation or the sanitary sewers will continue to back up during heavy rain storms. This would cost about $100 to $200 per unit or about $300,000. This to be paid by the people themselves. The newer homes have sump pumps paid for by the owners so it isn't right for the older homes and businesses to dump their surface water into the sanitary sewers, which is the principal cause of the sanitary sewers flooding basements. With the heavy influx of surface water running into the sanitary sewer by the older homes and businesses that surround the sewage plant the sewerage from newer districts cannot drain away, resulting in the flooding of basements.

3. The complete enlarging of the sanitary sewers as advocated by the people who have had their basements flooded would cost at least two or three million dollars. This averages out to approximately $600 in taxes and interest per tax paying unit, much greater than the $100 or $200 dollars for a sump pump installation.

4. The primary and most pressing problem is the storm sewer system. This present system is very inadequate and very poorly designed. Apparently foresight, knowledge of elevations, adequate pumping facilities and intelligence were entirely omitted in the design and installation of this system. To have an adequate storm sewer system installed will cost at least one or two million dollars which would average out to approximately $400 per tax paying unit. The total amounts to $1,000 per taxpayer which is quite a bit higher than a sump pump installation.

Instead of the people taking a "Cry Wolf" attitude and start demanding this or that, it's about time they try to help themselves instead of relying on a dormant council. The more that services are demanded from the city the higher the price is going to be.

Last January during one of the open council meetings, a few taxpayers loudly exclaimed that they were entitled to an adequate sanitary sewer system. That they are, but the taxpayers for new homes and businesses that have to pay for their own sump pumps and cannot be allowed to run their surface water into the sanitary sewer system, have a greater right in demanding that all homes and businesses have their surface water by-pass the sanitary sewer system before any large expenditures are undertaken to put in a larger sanitary or storm sewer system.

The slough could be damaged at the entrance to the lower lake and with a few pumps pumping out the Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for the week of May 28, 1860.

The Republican convention at Chicago was Seward's last chance for the Presidency.

He is a useful citizen when in the minority, but he always lends his influence to the promotions of every scheme for the enrichment of capitalists and impoverishment of the National Treasury, and if by any of the mutations of politics he had grasped the reins of government, his Administration would have been the most extravagant and corrupt one known in American history.

Few Campaign Issues In Legislative Session

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Madison — As the 1959 legislature wanes in spite of spectacular longevity, the politicians are trying to assess the record in terms of campaign issues for the fall struggle between the parties.

A preliminary answer must be that they are not abundant, and far from clear-cut.

Through a startling stroke of good fortune, the Democratic administration has extricated itself from the most embarrassing financial plight of recent times and thus has gone glimmering the most obvious and the most desired point of attack by the Republicans.

The sum total of state spending in this biennium is admittedly high. An experienced observer knows that the level of spending in most agencies is higher than their chiefs had privately expected they would be permitted, when they scanned the financial outlook when the 1959 legislature was sworn in.

But that issue has been blurred considerably by the fact that tax receipts have been inflated sufficiently to bear the higher load of spending. The taxpayer will be spared another increase in levies, immediately at least, and thus he won't be disposed to examine the spending trends very carefully.

IN OVERVIEW

When the Democrats won the election in November of 1958 there were many persons of independent but moderate views who were concerned about the intimate alliance of the party with organized labor and its aggressively selfish causes.

Would the state have a labor government, they asked themselves?

Labor made a nominal push for some of its more radical aspirations, including the scuttling of the long-standing state labor relations act. Perhaps in deference to the reality that such a goal never would have passed the Republican state senate, the campaign collapsed almost as soon as it had been announced. Nothing slough and maintaining a low level of water, the storm sewers for the west half of the city could take care of all surface water.

Theodore A. Dupont
Neenah

ing basic was changed in labor legislation. But, perhaps more noteworthy, Gov. Nelson carefully kept his own counsel. He did nothing to offend his labor allies. But he did nothing to suggest that he wanted to revolutionize statutory rules on labor relations, either.

There has been a good deal of noise about the state department of administration and the young men who run it. The conservation department, one of the favorites in popular terms, has been pushed around a bit. But the objective bystander is inclined to guess that when the people elect a governor they expect him to have the right to choose his immediate subordinates, even if he makes a mistake or two.

Some of the big controversies of the year were artificial, in terms of issues. The income tax withholding bill was a gimmick, related to the financial exigencies of Nelson's situation, rather than to ideology. The farm marketing bill was such a vague concept that not half a dozen legislators truly understand it today.

PERHAPS LATER

In all, there has been no especially significant departure in policy or practice in the state government under a Democratic dispensation. The cautious observer recalls, of course, that the Democratic mandate was a doubtful one. Nelson's margin was not large. He was faced with a hostile Republican state senate. It is conceivable that the program might have been substantially different had there been a complete Democratic control of the legislature.

But the idea lingers that the Democrats may find some skepticism in the ranks of their own liberal admirers. What is there that the state has achieved under a Democratic administration that it might not have had under a Republican administration, among the fundamental tenets of the liberal viewpoint?

It has been a standoff, perhaps. The heaven that the liberal theology so confidently predicted has not yet come to pass. The perdition that the Republican catechism forecast has been avoided.

Language of Foreign Officers Has Improved

From The Milwaukee Journal

There has been an improvement in the number of American foreign service officers who can speak a foreign language. As of today, the state department estimates, 85 per cent of them can speak another language besides English, as compared with less than 50 per cent in 1958.

The gain results from additional funds given the department more than two years ago to man special foreign language schools. German and Spanish have been learned by so many that the schools for them in Germany and Mexico are to be closed.

But there remains still the question of emphasis. The number of Scandinavian speaking foreign service officers is greater than that of all who speak an Asian language. And by 1965 there will be 20 Finnish speaking officers but only two who will speak Swahili, an important African language.

Isn't it in Asia and Africa that local languages will be needed most by our diplomats in the years ahead?

Winning AHS Pieces Appear In Booklet

'Patterns' Includes
29 Poems, Stories,
Other Student Work

"Patterns in Stardust," a collection of 29 selections written by Appleton High school students, has been completed by the school art, commercial, English and industrial arts departments and Quill and Scroll society.

The winning poems, essays, short stories, book reviews and translations were chosen from 274 entries. Judges were Mrs. James Mackesy, Mrs. William T. Ducklow, Jr., Dr. Ben Schneider and Richard Stowe.

Jan Van Heurck, a junior, has four pieces published in the annual. She took first and second place in the serious poetry division, second in book reviews and first in translations.

Double Winners

Others with more than one winning entry include Alice Fulton, first place and honorable mention in formal essays; Eugene Koepke, second and third places in short stories; Janet Kreiling, first place in both short stories and book reviews; and Barbara Bradley, second in informal essays and third in translations.

Authors of other pieces in the 55-page booklet include:

Serious poetry, Richard Cresswell, third, and Susan Cotterill, honorable mention. Humorous poetry, Kathleen Fourness, first; Karl Stringham, second; Sandra Newbury, third; and Carol Bellinghausen, honorable mention.

Winning Essays

Formal essays, Barbara Abel, second; Duane Hanson, third, and Rochelle Cohen, honorable mention.

Informal essays, Susan Gooding, first, Penny Brownell, third, and Stephanie Le-Vee, honorable mention.

Short stories, Ralph Whitehead, honorable mention.

Book reviews, Pamela Dressang, third, and Barbara Daffoe, honorable mention.

Pulp, Paper Workers Get 12½-Cent Hike

Pacific Coast pulp and paper workers have approved a new 1-year contract calling for a package increase of 12½ cents an hour. The new agreement covering about 20,000 members of two unions becomes effective June 1.

Members of United Papermakers and Paperworkers union and the International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers voted 6,346 to 5,412 to accept the contract, which boosts the base pay to $2.19½ cents an hour for men and $1.88½ cents an hour for women.

The pact was worked out between negotiators for the two unions and the Pacific Coast Association of Pulp and Paper Manufacturers, representing 18 pulp and paper companies.

In addition to a general wage increase of 3½ per cent, which company and union spokesmen say will be worth from 7½ cents to 17 cents an hour, the workers also gained a liberalized health and welfare program to be paid for entirely by the employers.

The agreement affects workers in 44 plants from Bellingham, Wash., to Pomona, Calif.

Girl Initiated Into Phi Beta Kappa

Susan M. Chudacoff, daughter of Mrs. Zoe Chudacoff, 2206 N. Rankin street, is one of 23 new Phi Beta Kappa members initiated into the Northwestern university chapter of the oldest honorary society.

Miss Chudacoff, a senior in psychology, is a graduate of Neenah High school. At Northwestern, she received a scholarship from her sorority, Alpha Epsilon Phi, was on the dean's honor list, and took part in other campus activities.

New York Worlds Fair To Be Biggest Ever

New York — That 1964-65 New York worlds fair is going to be a whopper — two and a half times bigger than the fair in 1939-40.

That's the promise Robert Moses made yesterday as he took over as fair president and chief executive officer. He signed a 7-year contract for a yearly salary of $75,000 plus $25,000 a year for expenses.

Summer Time Romance Fare Tips NBC Series

Network Working on Five Special Plays
Based on World's Greatest Love Stories

BY JINGO

In the publishing field summer time is heralded by a sweet scented wave of light romances. It is felt readers of the printed word in summer time — like the young man's fancy in spring time — turn to thoughts of love and shouldn't be expected to digest anything more meaty in a plot than boy meets girl — or for this leap year, perhaps, girl meets boy.

Now comes the summer time television announcements with NBC following the publisher's richly rewarding viewpoint, but the network has sent out only a notice to titillate the summer viewers.

In the 1960-61 season there will be a series of five of the world's greatest love stories aired in 80 and 120 minute specials. The NBC list includes Camille, Nana, Jane Eyre, the Biblical story of David and Bathsheba and Van Dyke's "Intermezzo."

Vivien Leigh, recent recipient — so it is said — of a request for a divorce from Sir Lawrence Olivier, has laid down her terms for her television debut. She will grace the living room box if the electronic moguls can obtain rights from G. B. Shaw's estate for the use of "Candida" for her.

Name Siobhan Now Popular

Shows Power of TV,
Imported to U. S.
By Dublin Actress

BY CYNTHIA LITWY
AP Radio-TV Writer

New York—(AP)—One off beat demonstration of the power of television is the fact that there are a lot of girls named Siobhan in the United States. And that almost everybody knows how to pronounce it. Shown with the accent on the second syllable.

It is, in fact, an ancient Gaelic name meaning white spirit, and was imported to these shores by a Dublin actress named McKenna.

Siobhan McKenna is a performer whose career recognizes no geographic limitations and so it may next pop up in Spain.

Lives in Dublin. She lives—and often performs—in Dublin. She has become famous on the London and Broadway stage. She does several TV shows a year here, an occasional movie.

"I like to play many roles," she says, "because I act in the Irish form. The Irish form is to be the character—and I would get terribly tired of being one character all the time. But at the most I don't want to do more than four plays a year."

Although Dublin is where her home—and husband and son—are, Miss McKenna's American career brings her to New York often enough to make a permanent roof-tree worthwhile. She has a small apartment in Greenwich village.

Speaks Gaelic

Back home with her son, they speak Gaelic. Speech is more than a hobby with her. "The English speak fast and chipped," she said, "and their mouths form words differently."

"The American and Irish speak slower and use their mouths more. I took lessons to play in one show, but the producer wouldn't let me use it—he said it was perfect, but noticeable and diverting coming from me."

St. Charles Grade

Backed — The Rev. Arthur Bucken, S.D.S., pastor of St. Charles Catholic church, will present diplomas to Gertrude Brunner, Robert Cullen, Mark Geiser, Wilmer Geiser, Robert Mangan, Roman Mueller, Leroy Roehrig and Paul Schieler during graduation ceremonies for the parochial school after the 9:30 a.m. mass Sunday.

Ancient Greece Subject of 'Giant Of Marathon'

The story of ancient Greece and its conflict with invading Persians unfolds as a spectacular in the movie, "The Giant of Marathon," currently playing at the Viking theater.

Heading the large cast is Steve Reeves, star of such spectacles as "Hercules" and "Goliath and the Barbarians" in which the Olympic hero He is the young star who has won every international award for his masculine physique, including the titles of Mr. World and Mr. Universe.

Some of the action-packed scenes include a race on horseback, a wrestling match, the battle on the plains of Marathon and a naval battle in which the Olympic heroes swim underwater to intercept and destroy the invader's ships.

The movie was filmed on location in Italy.

J. Edgar Hoover Reports Growing Network of Russian Spies, Agents

BY GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY
New York — In his 1950 report, J. Edgar Hoover said: "I want to point out the increased volume of our espionage work. In 1947 we received 796 espionage matters. In 1948 we received 1,227, in 1949, 1,936, while in 1950 we had 3,523."

Sokolosky
In his 1950 report, Hoover said: "Despite the Soviet Russian peace front the activities of the communist-bloc intelligence services have continued down to the present time. Evaluation of investigative developments during the past year has shown that the current Red leadership has no intention of relaxing its efforts, and that the increasing pressure of foreign-directed espionage networks will continue indefinitely. Our investigative countermeasures have also provided us with a means of estimating the degree of Soviet-satellite intelligence activities being conducted in the United States under the guise of diplomatic status."

Prosecutions Not Gauge
Hoover also said in this report: "Because of the nature of our counterespionage and intelligence work, its effectiveness cannot necessarily be measured in terms of convictions secured or sentences imposed. Prosecutions are no measure of success in counterespionage and intelligence activities. Foreign intelligence personnel are often protected by diplomatic immunity and are quick to exploit our constitutional guarantees.

"Often, disclosure of their activities through public trial would compromise highly classified information. For his 1960 appropriation, J. Edgar Hoover reported: "Despite Soviet advocacy of an ostensible 'peace front,' there has been no letup in red subversion. To the contrary, the Soviet Union's much heralded 'peaceful coexistence' campaign has opened the door for foreign-directed espionage on an accelerated scale."

Fraudulent Passports
"To the Soviets, this slogan is merely a tactical expedient clearly designed to expand international communism's capabilities for espionage and subversion. Experience has taught the bitter truth that never should we be more alert than when communist powers cloak their drive for world domination behind appeasement policies."

"Our investigations have clearly disclosed an overall expansion of Soviet bloc intelligence activities against the United States. There has been a predominantly widespread use of 'legal' agents opering under the guise of diplomatic status. There are indications, further, of a general tightening-up of the organizational structure of the Soviet intelligence apparatus. There can be little doubt that this increased pressure of foreign-directed espionage activity will continue with added emphasis for an indefinite future period."

Easy For Party
One of Soviet Russia's tricks in the espionage game is the use of fraudulent passports. Concerning this, Hoover said last year:

"Fraudulent passports have, traditionally, been standard equipment for spies and subversives. Though we have been confronted with this deception for many years, the problem today has become even more difficult. 'Top party functionaries have stated that it will now be 'easy' for the party. What was meant, of course, was that (the supreme court) ruling will facilitate the travel of spies, couriers, and subversives. The next time a representative of the Communist party is summoned to the Soviet Union, he will not even have to go to the trouble of using an alias."

"The party has lost no time in capitalizing upon the ease with which passports may now be obtained. A steady stream of party people, including such long time functionaries as Alexander Trach-

Joe Louis Firm Registers to Promote Cuba

Washington —A— Former heavyweight champion Joe Louis' public relations firm has registered with the justice department as an agent of Fidel Castro's Cuban government, for the stated purpose of promoting travel to Cuba.

The statement, signed by Louis himself, was filed with the foreign agents registration section.

It showed the firm, Louis-Rowe-Fisher-Lockhart Enterprises Inc., 200 W. 57th street, New York City, has signed a $287,000-a-year contract to represent the national tourist commission of Cuba, a government agency.

This sum will cover the firm's fees and pay for a program "to publicize and promote tourism through publicity, public relations and advertising in newspapers, magazines, radio and television."

The former heavyweight champion, now 46, signed his full legal name, Joseph Louis Barrow, of Los Angeles. Louis' reported recent trips tenberg, James Jackson, George Morris, and Victor J. Jerome, applied for and received passports for travel to the Soviet Union. Obviously individuals of this type are not going to Russia for vacation purposes."

These passports are sometimes used by unauthorized persons in other countries. They are also handed over to Russians, Poles, Czechs, Hungarians and other spies for use in neutral countries.

to Cuba included a visit to Havana last New Year's day to assist in promoting the celebration of the first anniversary of the Castro revolution. The former fighter reported he received a $3,000 fee and expenses.

Louis returned to Havana in late January for nearly two weeks of business conferences with the tourist commission.

His New York firm said it had already been paid $28,250 by the commission — and

Former Beloit Man Sentenced To Life Term

Tampa, Fla. —A— Donald Henderson, 24-year-old draftsman formerly of Beloit, Wis., Tuesday was sentenced to life in prison for the murder of a 75-year-old businessman at Lutz Community north of Tampa.

Henderson showed no emotion when Circuit Judge John Germany pronounced sentence.

Attorneys for Henderson said there would not be a motion for a new trial.

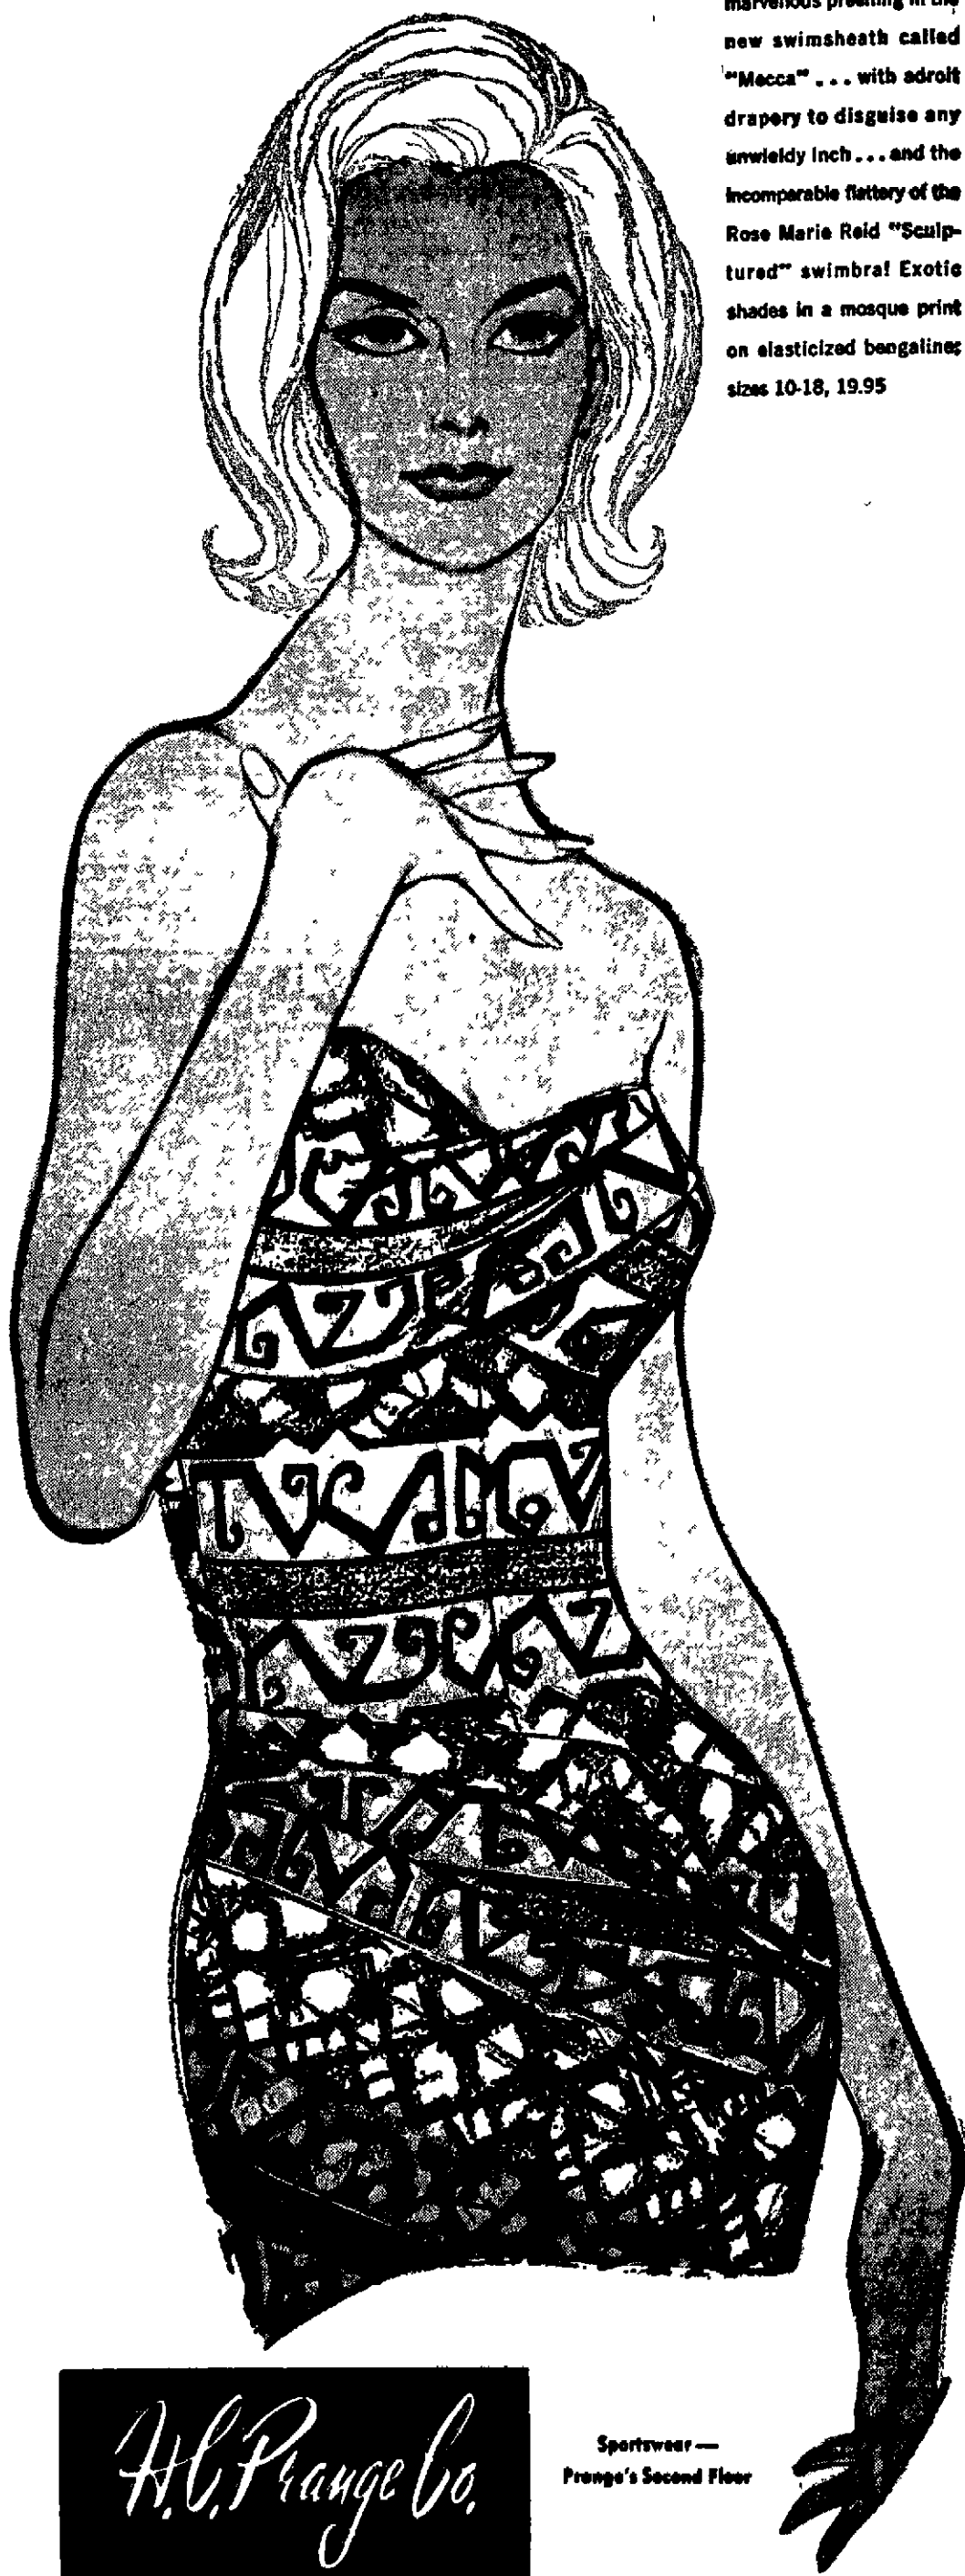

Henderson was convicted by a jury last week of second degree murder in the death of Claude Yocam in March. Second degree murder is punishable by 20 years to life.

State Atty. James M. McEwen said he also plans to bring Henderson to trial for the slaying of Mrs. Yocam, 74, killed at the same time as her husband.

Henderson was arrested by FBI agents at his mother's home in Oak Park, Ill., several days after the slayings.

that he would much prefer that the United Nations undertake the task of keeping watch on the military efforts of all the great powers.

He reaffirmed his intention to propose a new Open Skies plan to the UN, and announced that the United States would supply "part of the aircraft and equipment required." Press officer James C. Hagerty said this offer would include the high-flying U2 jet planes used by the United States in aerial espionage of Russia for the last four years.

At this point in his speech Eisenhower drew a maul from his prepared text, as it was released in advance, and displayed a photograph of the North Island Naval station at San Diego, Calif.

Explaining that it was taken from an altitude of more than 70,000 feet — about 13 miles — he said that some of the lines shown in the picture were only six inches wide.

What information The photograph provides an example of "what could be accomplished through United Nations aerial surveillance," the president said. He did not mention that fact, but it also provided an example of the kind of detailed photographic information which the United States evidently collected with as his twin-engine plane flew over the north German coast. He added there were some thunderstorms but they presented no problem.

Of his grounding, Lundy said he expected the investigation — "It is routine in the air force on occasions like this." He said, however, that as far as he knew, he did not violate any flying procedures.

East Germans "In my opinion," he added, "everything was satisfactory."

Lundy said he landed his plane in a "sod" field about 15 miles north of the east German town of Grevesmuhlen.

As soon as the plane bumped over the field and came to a stop, Lundy went on, the five crewmen and four passengers jumped out and waited in an adjoining field for about five minutes, until East German police arrived.

The East Germans searched all except the woman passenger, Mrs. Barbara A. McCash of Atlanta, Ga., who was on a leave trip with her doctor husband, Capt. Paul K. McCash.

Some time later, Lundy, as the pilot, was taken alone by Russian troops and was questioned for about four hours. The other Americans were taken to Soviet headquarters at Grevesmuhlen a short time later.

guage in dealing with the U2 flight and U.S. policy on intelligence.

His speech bristled with such expressions as "lying explanations," "brazen assertions" and "odor of Hitlerite attitude."

Touching on Eisenhower's broadcast to the nation, Gromyko declared the president had stressed once more "in a categorical manner that the government of the United States will continue its espionage against the Soviet Union by any means."

He said the president in his speech confirmed that he had "personally approved provocative actions" against the Soviet Union in the future.

He accused the U.S. government of "hanging on to a bankrupt policy" in regarding to the Soviet Union.

"The logic is marvellous, I must say," he continued. "Once you do not accept my proposal, then I am going to commit incursions into your territory even if this runs counter to the purposes and principles of the United Nations."

This was a reference to U.S. declarations that spy flights were considered necessary to guard against surprise attack.

Gromyko rejected anew the U.S. plan for a UN aerial surveillance system.

"It's only aim," he asserted, "is to obtain unlimited aerial reconnaissance of the Soviet Union and other socialist countries to the detriment of their national security and for the benefit of those who are interested in preparing for a surprise attack and for war."

ate foreign relations committee, outlined for the president the plans for his group's inquiry, which will start tomorrow. Johnson also referred to investigations planned by other congressional committees.

"We are all in this together," Johnson said, "and we are treating mistakes as errors."

"Our big objective is to bring about American solidarity."

Eisenhower invited 10 senators and 13 house members to a breakfast of oatmeal, scrambled eggs, ham and bacon.

earth tremors that so far showed no sign of stopping. Heavy rains over much of the vast quake area added to their misery, and high seas still pounded the coast, raising fears of more tidal waves. The U.S. air force joined in flying relief through the smoke billowing from volcanoes. "The whole world seemed to be shaking and quivering," said one survivor flown to Santiago from shattered Valdivia province. With countless communities still cut off and the upheavals of nature continuing, officials could not even predict the final toll. Low-lying clouds and rain hampered aerial rescue operations. Smoke and ash

Spy Flights Impossible Over U. S. DEW Line

Paramus, N. J., — (AP) — It would be impossible for an enemy spy plane to sneak over from volcanoes hung over much of the southern part of the mountainous land.

The interior ministry listed the known dead at 1,706 and 1,123 missing and presumed dead.

The face of the county itself was altered by the disturbances which began Saturday. Three new earth tremors were reported yesterday. Tidal waves up to 15 feet high still pounded along 750 miles of the southern coast. Many islands along the coast could not be reached for word of their inhabitants.

In Cautin province the earth's surface dropped as much as 1,000 feet over a 25-mile stretch. Two new lakes were formed in the Andes near Lake Rinihue. Avalanches filled valleys with stone and earth.

The pilot of a U.S. air force C54 on a relief mission, Capt. Harlan K. Black of Walnut, Ill., estimated the smoke rose to 30,000 feet over 7,349-foot Puyehue volcano, one of seven shaken alive by the rumbling earth tremors.

The U.S. air force summoned planes from bases in New Jersey, Delaware and South Carolina to airlift two fully equipped, 400-bed field hospitals to Santiago. Thirty-four planes were to transport the 426 medical personnel and 350 tons of equipment.

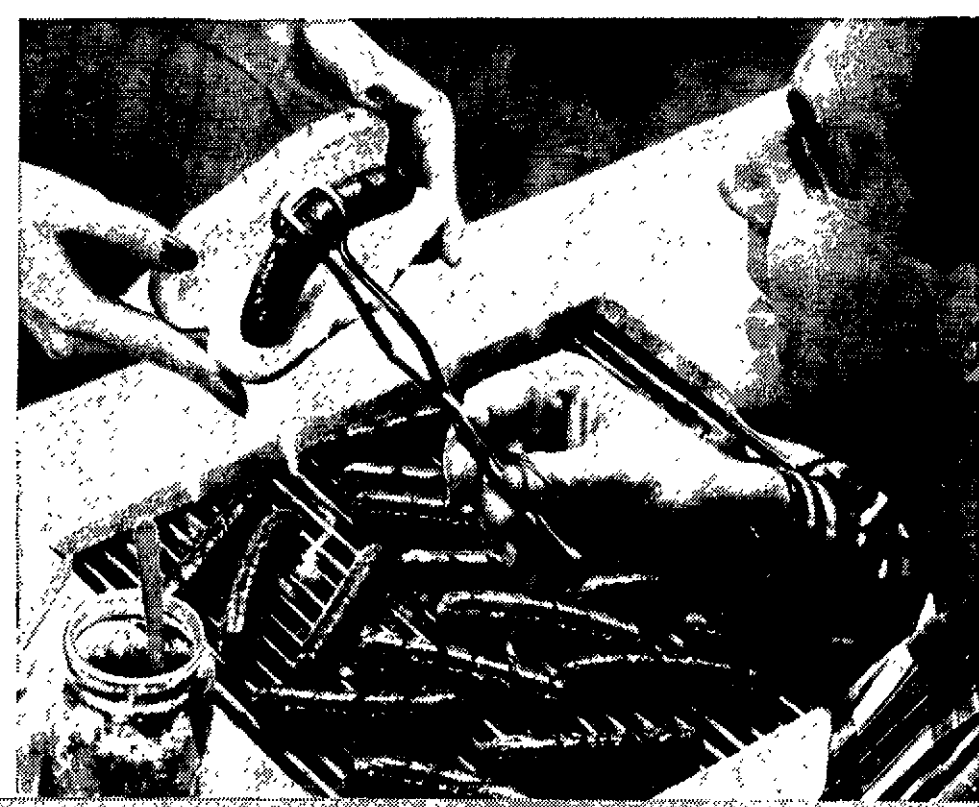

the North Pole and take photographs of America, say air defense command officials.

The officials, in charge of the U. S. distant early warning (DEW Line) system of radar stations in the far north, made the comment yesterday at the end of a 2-day meeting to discuss the system in light of the U-2 spy plane incident.

OSCAR MAYER SMOKIE LINKS

For those tender links Oscar Mayer chooses extra lean beef and choice pork, grinds it country style (not too fine). Then slow-smokes the tender links till they're fully cooked and the tangy aroma nuzzles deep down in every bite. For great eatin' in the open, all you do is brown 'em. They fairly crackle with juicy, homespun flavor!

Khrushchev May Prevent Recession

BY SYLVIA PORTER

The debate at Paris could just about eliminate the danger of an important recession later this year or in 1961.

At the highest levels of business and finance in Wall Street and Washington, the timing of the next business recession has been of increasingly acute concern. The majority opinion is that the downturn will hit next year.

As an illustration, a poll of 20 of the nation's top government and business economists by the bureau of national affairs in late April disclosed "the nearly unanimous opinion" that we can't "escape a recession in 1961. It will be under way by the middle of the year." The Value Line Investment survey said flatly in late March, "It would be prudent to prepare for a business recession in 1961." The well-known Chicago economic consultant, John K. Langum, told U.S. News, also in late March, "A significant recession is coming along, starting about the middle of 1961."

Something New
The reason behind the recession forecasts is that by early 1961, business spending will be running out of steam, consumer spending will be slowing down — and the government will be operating on a fat surplus, taking far more money in taxes out of the business stream than it puts in. Moreover, by spring of next year, the upturn which began in the spring of 1958 will be aged by comparison with the average duration of previous business upturns in our country.

And finally, experts haven't been able to figure out what new thrust could add strength to a tired upswing.

But something "new" well may have been added by the almost unbelievably dreadful chain of events starting with the U-2 mission and continuing through the smashup at the summit.

Defense Step-up
That something new is the abrupt awakening of Americans that the cold war is far colder than the men in power in Washington apparently dreamed as recently as a fortnight ago.

That something new is the uncomfortable realization by influential lawmakers in congress that Khrushchev might not have dared act as he did were the superiority of our strength unmistakable.

It is the heightened determination among these congressional leaders to boost defense spending in the year starting July 1 beyond what this Administration has asked to try to improve our military force. As Sen. Russell (D-Ga) put it at defense budget hearings last week, "I don't think our strength was impressive enough to cause Mr. Khrushchev to exercise the ordinary amenities of diplomacy." At these hearings, informed rumors of a step-up in defense spending of up to $2 billion above Eisenhower's current budget.

Pledge More Growth
It is the unqualified pledge of every candidate for the White House to take steps to increase our rate of growth beyond what it has been during Eisenhower's terms. When the presidential campaign formally opens, the two candidates will be elaborating on this pledge against a background of Khrushchev's threats, taunts, challenges. It is a certainty that the next president— whoever he is — will be more aggressive than Eisenhower in acting to spur our growth.

This easily could mean that federal spending will be much more of a stimulant to the economy than has been projected — at a time when the economy will need the stimulant. And since this upturn hasn't developed any excesses, even a mild spur could be enough to push back that next recession.

I've always been skeptical of the recession - will - come-right - on - time - in - 1961 club. The timing has seemed too pat.
Now I'm even more of a skeptic, for the new, unforeseen thrust could come from "K" himself.

Another Rice Play to Appear as Musical

New York — Pulitzer prize winning playwright Elmer Rice had one of his serious plays, "Street Scene," presented in a musical version on Broadway several seasons ago.

Now another of his serious plays, "Dream Girl," is scheduled as a musical for this fall. Carol Channing will sing the starring role.

Mayors Unite on School Law Change

Advocate Enactment of Wilkie Amendment for 'Fair Annexation'

Madison—In a rare showing of unified action, mayors and managers of 19 Wisconsin cities Wednesday descended upon the legislature to demand modification of a 1959 school attachment bill they claim will ruin their chances of orderly urban growth through normal annexation procedures.

Appleton was represented by Mayor Clarence Mitchell and City Atty. Don J. Kauka. Neenah and Menasha were not represented.

City executives protested legislation (Bill 485) which allows rural grade school districts to annex to city high school districts without annexing to the city for all government purposes.

The proposed Wilkie amendment would require rural and suburban territory to attach for all purposes.

Rural Protests
But there was some doubt that the legislature in the short time remaining will be able, or willing, to grant cities the relief they want.

A strong group of rural residents and their local political leaders turned up in a senate hearing room to denounce what they called the "selfishness" of cities, and were backed by George Watson, state superintendent of public instruction, who asked that the present law be permitted to prove itself.

Watson protested what he called the effort of the cities to inject their annexation troubles into the issue of improving school organization and the quality of school service.

Dilute Tax Base
But the city spokesmen, led by City Manager Joe Lustig of Janesville, complained that the purpose of the rural spokesmen is to require city taxpayers to use their tax resources to finance the education of rural residents.

Several mayors described the probable results of the school attachment bill as to dilute their own local tax bases, and Mayor Milo Knutson of LaCrosse said his already hard-pressed city might find the consequences "lethal."

Under the present law, all unorganized territory must be joined to some operating high school district by a county school committee during the next two years. Because cities have "integrated" districts from grades 1 to 12—such attachment would also bring them elementary school enrollment from non-city districts.

Nelson Approves
Gov. Nelson sent an emissary to appeal for enactment of the Wilkie amendment. Otherwise there will be an "illogical riddle" in most of the urban localities, said Bruce Thomas Nelson's staff.

Lustig, saying that his 18 associates represented 750,000 Wisconsin urban residents (Milwaukee is exempt from the bill) predicted that the new law will bring about "urban monstrosities without shape or form." Other comments were equally sharp.

Knutson said his city cannot recover economically if it must bear the cost of public services for non-residents.

Mayor Roman Denissen of Green Bay said the confusion about school attachment, and school taxation vindicates the need for wholesale Wisconsin tax revision, and Stevens Point officials said rural school attachments to the city would force a rise of more than five mills in the city tax rate.

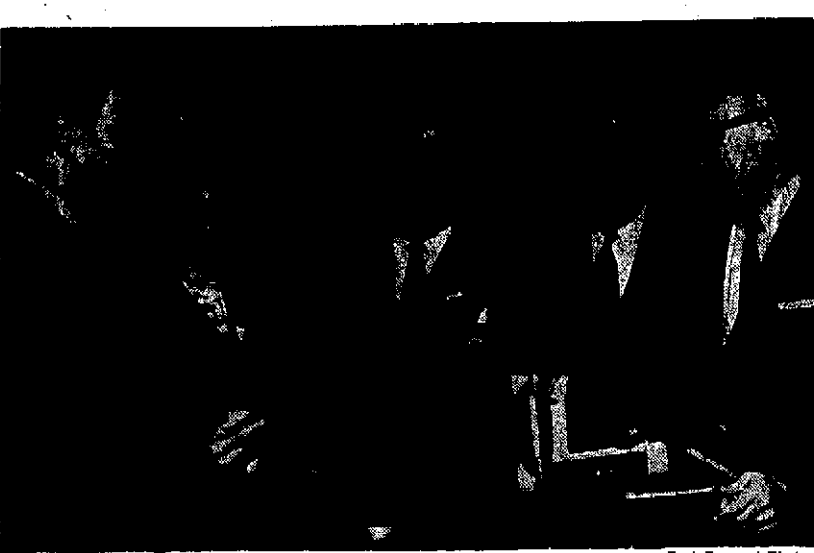

Waukesha officials talked about their dread of an "iron ring" around that fast growing city if its suburbs are permitted to avoid annexation through the low-cost use of city-financed schools.

But Watson, appealing for a fair trial for the new law, pointedly told legislators he thought they knew what they were doing when they enacted it in the first place, and said it would be "unfair to change the ground rules now," after some consolidations have already taken place.

The state school chief who is politically immune because he is retiring from office reported that city school districts for decades have included much non-city territory, and denied that the result would tax hikes in most cities.

'Continue Progress'
"Let us continue our progress rather than take this backward step," he said as he opposed the city-sponsored proposal to protect the full annexation rights of urban centers.

Sen. Horace Wilkie, sponsor of the city amendment, suggested that the Wisconsin School Boards association and the Wisconsin Education association have changed their positions since last year, but officers of both denied it as they backed the present law and protested any change. Most of the champions of the law conceded that some study would be useful, in preparation for the deadline in 1962 which the 1961 legislature may want to defer.

To Your Good Health

Emphysema of Lungs Not Catching, Lack of Elasticity

By Joseph G. Molner, M. D.

"Dear Dr. Molner: Is emphysema of the lungs contagious? If a member of the family has it, should others use any precautions?" — Mrs. F. A.

No, it is not contagious. Precautions are not necessary. The condition is one which arises when the tissues of the lungs have lost their elasticity. For example, some men have acquired this trouble after many years of being glass-blowers. The constant, heavy pressure of blowing, in some cases, finally stretches the tissues so that they no longer can snap back as tautly as before.

But this is not the only cause of emphysema, nor are all glass-blowers victims of it. When the lung tissues lose their stretch—don't contract as you exhale—that's emphysema. (Pronounced em-fih-ZEE-muh.)

Let's compare the condition to something like, for instance, hardening of the arteries. Some people are more likely to acquire it than others. It's pretty hard to guess which ones—just as it's pretty hard to guess, when you look at a room full of school boys, which will be the best baseball players.

Lungs Stretched
Some doctors believe that heavy smoking tends to lead to emphysema. Likewise some people nervously tend to draw a lot of air into the lungs and hold it there longer than normal. Somebody who has had this habit for 30 or 40 years may, perhaps, stretch the lungs and develop some degree of emphysema. And certainly there are various diseases which can damage the lung tissues and make them more susceptible to being stretched beyond their ability to snap back to original tautness.

Whatever the cause, things I've just mentioned or things I haven't, emphysema is simply a matter of not having enough elasticity in the lungs. To offer another example, suppose someone in the family has impaired eyesight. It may be because he was born with some weakness in the eyes, or his eyes may have been damaged from some injury. But we know that his poor eyesight isn't contagious. If no infection is present, then no precautions are necessary. If lung infection is present, your doctor would have said so.

Hair, Nail Growth
"Dear Dr. Molner: All my life I've wondered how long a person's hair and fingernails grow in a month.—T. M."

The hair, from about a quarter of an inch a month up to nearly twice that much; the nails, about one-sixth of an inch a month.

Stenosis
"Dear Dr. Molner: What is the difference between mitral stenosis and aortic stenosis? Would it be dangerous for a woman of 64 to undergo surgery for aortic stenosis?—Mrs. Z."

Stenosis, or partial closing off, of a heart valve naturally interferes with the heart's efficiency. The mitral valve lies between two chambers of the heart; the aortic valve is in the aorta, or main artery leaving the heart. The difference, then, is in the place at which the stenosis has developed. Heart surgery is, of course a major operation; whether to have such an operation would depend on your general physician against the need for the surgical condition as weighed against the need for the surgery.

Troubled with varicose veins? To make sure you are doing all you can to relieve the problem, write to me in care of this newspaper requesting my booklet, "How To Deal With Varicose Veins," enclosing a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover the cost of handling.

45 Attend UCS Workshop

Representatives Hear Talks on Public Relations

Between 40 and 45 representatives of 15 Appleton health, welfare and recreation agencies participated in public relations workshops sponsored by the Appleton United Community Services Wednesday at First Congregational church.

The workshop was designed to aid agency executives and volunteers in planning publicity and public relations.

Workshop Speakers
Workshop speakers were Miss Genevieve Mortell, Wisconsin Telephone company, who spoke on telephone courtesy; T. H. Hartman, personnel director of AAL, who discussed letter writing; and John Yuenger, promotion manager of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, who talked on publicity media.

The mechanics of public relations were outlined at the noon luncheon by John H. McLean, of the Wisconsin Michigan Power company.

The workshop was opened by Mrs. Harry W. Brown, Jr., chairman of the UCS public information department. Department members Richard Van Sistine and Henry Starck were co-chairmen of the workshop.

Hospital to Draw Plans For Addition

Clintonville — The Community hospital association's board announced this week that it expects to enter into a contract with an architectural firm within 90 days for an addition to the hospital. This wing is to provide accommodations for the aged. The board has held meetings with representatives of several firms. On Monday night, it met with the firm of Durant and Burquist of Boscobel.

The addition is estimated to cost $300,000. The building program with the federal allocation of $120,000 will be started in the spring of 1961, according to R. J. Platte, hospital administrator.

Failure to Get Licenses May Close Taverns

30 Operators Still Must File Health Cards Due April 15

A somewhat unconventional prohibition era may hit nearly half the taverns in Appleton over the Fourth of July weekend if their operators do not get state-required health cards in the next 21 days.

There are 74 tavern operators in the city and 30 have failed to turn in the health cards with their new license applications, both of which were supposed to have been in the city clerk's office by April 15.

Present licenses expire June 30 and the city council will act on new licenses June 15. Any not approved then must wait until the next council meeting July 6.

Applications not accompanied by health cards will be turned down and the taverns closed July 1. They will have to remain closed until licenses are granted.

A list of taverns whose licenses were not approved will be supplied the police department by the council.

Operators get the blank cards from the city clerk's office, and their family physicians fill them in after giving the operator a physical examination.

The cards then go to the city health department, where they are signed by Dr. Marvin S. Kagen, health commissioner. They are returned to the clerk's office, to be kept on file.

Several taverns were temporarily closed in 1956 because the operators did not file health cards.

Colleges, Prep Schools List Area Graduates

Fox Cities students are graduating from many schools and colleges this month.

Salvation Army Gives Help During Emergency

What do you do with Christ-mas pearing for eight children when your home, furniture, clothing is destroyed by fire? One Appleton family had such a problem.

The Salvation Army was called and came to the rescue. In a matter of days, the family had a new home, furniture and clothing as well as some "extras" for Christmas.

Temporary emergency help is almost always available at the Salvation Army. The cases are checked before aid is given to see if the city or county can help. Questions then are asked to see why the family or individual is in the situation of needing help. It is often illness, accident, or other emergency that breaks the family budget.

Help Given

Help is given in the form of food orders, fuel orders or clothing. Spiritual help also is administered where it is needed and family counseling is offered to the families.

Many girls who face the multiple problems of unwed motherhood come to the Salvation Army for help. They are able to be admitted to the Martha Washington Home and Hospital, Milwaukee, for medical care coupled with a warm understanding in a Christian atmosphere. A trained social worker assists each girl to plan both for herself and her baby.

Housing Problem

The Salvation Army in Appleton has faced a housing problem for many years, according to Capt. James Chapman. The ancient building on the corner of Morrison and North streets is too dilapidated and unwieldy for proper headquarters.

A campaign is underway for building funds. The Salvation Army is a member of the Community Fund. Its new building will be a 1-story structure, easier to heat and keep up. It will be built with only the most essentials, Captain Coleman said, to meet the needs in a growing community.

Yes, In Every Loaf of New Wonder Enriched Bread

TRIPLE - TRIPLE - TRIPLE

PROTEINS!

3 DIFFERENT PROTEINS BLENDED TOGETHER TO IMPROVE BIOLOGIC VALUE

PROTEIN FROM WHEAT

PROTEIN FROM YEAST

AND YOU GET BETTER FLAVOR IN NEW WONDER BREAD!

As every thoughtful mother knows, the most important nutrient you can give your growing child is protein.

Because, without protein, there can be no new cells for growth, no new cells to replace worn-out ones.

This wonderful new loaf of Wonder Bread is made for those thoughtful mothers to serve to their growing children to help sturdy, healthy growth because it supplies a blend of triple proteins which are needed daily.

But that's not all. Because New Wonder Bread with "Triple Proteins" has a better flavor.

Out Of This World—Plain Or Toasted

And—to make the grayest morning golden bright—pop New Wonder Bread into your toaster.

See for yourself why New Wonder Bread tastes better and toasts better.

NEW WONDER ENRICHED BREAD helps build strong bodies & brains

TWO LOAVES FREE if you don't agree

If you don't agree that the New Wonder Bread is far better for flavor and toasting than any bread you have ever served, send us the wrapper with your name and address.

We will send you an order on your grocer for two loaves free. We are absolutely sure that no one ever tasted bread so good. This offer good until June 23, 1960.

16oz 2 loaves per family.

FOR TOAST SUPREME—GET NEW WONDER BREAD

You know that toast flavor depends on how well some of the starch in bread is "crum-melized" by your toaster.

What you may not know is the flavor "kick" added milk sugar can give to toast flavor.

Try New Wonder Bread and see the difference—you'll be glad you did.

Here at the Wonder Research Laboratories, the largest and most modern baking laboratories in the world, the formulation for New Wonder Enriched Bread was worked out by leading baking technologists. No other baker offers nutritional research and quality control on such an impressive and continuing scale, and no other baker offers so impressive a guarantee of consistency in the excellence of the product.

The Application of Lee Edward Penney, 24, of 661 S. Park avenue, Neenah, will be presented to Appleton city council and Outagamie county board for approval as city-county civil defense director. He was selected by the city's CD commission and the county board's executive committee when the two groups met to review applications.

27 Units Registered For Parade

Twenty-seven units, including seven bands, 10 floats, five drill teams and five marching groups have been registered for the Flag day parade, Joseph Moriarty, chairman, said today. The parade will be at 2 p. m. Saturday, June 11.

Among the entries are Miss Fox 327th Fighter group rifle drill team, Truax field, Madison, and Miss Mary Alice Fox, Sheboygan, Miss Wisconsin.

Moriarty said entries still are being accepted for the parade, and applicants may contact the mayor's office at city hall or attend meetings of the Flag day committee held at 7 p. m. each Monday night at the Appleton Elks club.

June 11 also is the date of the Miss Appleton pageant being sponsored by the Appleton Junior Chamber of Commerce. The Miss Appleton contestants will appear in the parade.

Mrs. Van Horn To Take Part in PTA Convention

Mrs. Willis M. Van Horn, 327 E. Washington street, took part in the 64th annual convention of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers in Philadelphia this week.

As president of the Wisconsin Congress of Parents and Teachers, she was formally presented to the convention audience Tuesday evening. Mrs. Van Horn is a member of the National Congress's election committee and of the committee on national council advisory service.

The national PTA convention is the first meeting of a major organization to consider means of carrying out some of the recommendations of the recent White House Conference on children and youth.

Eight Capped as Gray Ladies, Gray Men

Eight Appleton area volunteers have completed the Red Cross training and hospital orientation to be capped as Red Cross gray ladies and gray men.

Miss Sandy Hanson, Miss Janis Rowan, Miss Marcia Kriesse and Mrs. L. J. Ragus became certified gray ladies. David Melbe, Neal Gamsky, Martin Werner and Dallas Erickson were capped as gray men. These volunteers now are working with patients at Winnebago County hospital.

They read to patients, help write letters, walk with them and play games. They also help the music therapist and assist and join with patients at dances.

Oshkosh Pair Appears on Murder Charge

Defendants' Mental Condition in Doubt; Attorneys Appointed

Oshkosh — Francis Clayton, 18, and Mrs. Victoria Fritz, 30, were arraigned in Oshkosh municipal court this morning on charges of first degree murder.

They are charged with the murder of Marilyn Fritz, 37, her husband, while he slept the night of May 18.

Mrs. Fritz and Clayton, a former mental hospital patient from Waupaca, admitted they had an affair.

Acting Municipal Judge Herbert J. Mueller, in appointing two defense attorneys, said today "the mental condition of the defendants, the youth of one and the seriousness of the offense required the appointment of counsel."

Sgt. Earl Disch, one of five police officers who answered a call from Mrs. Fritz in the early morning, said they found Fritz lying in bed with a puncture in his right temple.

Baby Asleep
A 7-month-old child was asleep in a crib near the bed containing Fritz' body, Disch said. The bedroom showed no sign of a struggle, although the entire apartment was disarranged, he testified.

Clayton arrived at the Fritz apartment about 45 minutes after police arrived, Capt. William J. Gonyo, testified. Police said Clayton was carrying a knife sheath, and they later found a bowie knife under a mattress in the children's bedroom.

Slept Apart
Police Inspector Elmer Ludwig said Mrs. Fritz told him Fritz had gone to bed about 11 p.m., but she did not sleep with him because one of the children had a nose bleed. She told police she heard nothing, but awoke at 6 a.m. and found the body.

Ludwig said Mrs. Fritz related that she met Clayton at her mother's home about three months ago and Clayton had been a baby sitter at the Fritz home. She told Ludwig that approximately three weeks after she met Clayton they had been intimate a number of occasions at the Fritz home.

Clayton stayed at the Fritz home for about a week, but went to Waupaca April 27 when Fritz objected to his presence.

Changes Story
Mrs. Fritz changed her story after police received a phone call informing them that she and Clayton were at the phone booth from which she called police.

She then said Clayton had spent the night at her place and told police where to find the gun used to shoot her husband. The .22-calibre rifle was found in a pickup truck owned by Fritz and parked in the driveway.

Time of Death
Dr. G. A. Steele, Winnebago county coroner, said he arrived at the Fritz home at about 6:30 a.m. An autopsy, Dr. Steele said, established that Fritz died between 10:30 and 11 p.m. Friday night.

Clayton and Mrs. Fritz were taken to the police station for questioning Saturday morning.

Ludwig testified today that when Mrs. Fritz was questioned at the jail she told of how she and Clayton "planned to do away" with her husband.

Judge Mueller appointed attorneys Sinton Flanagan and James Williamson as defense counsel for the pair.

The hearing was to be continued at 1:30 p.m. today.

Philip Schwarz Takes Papers for Second Try at County Office

Philip H. Schwarz, 30, 1630 E. Melrose avenue, made the GOP race for district attorney in the Sept. 13 primary a 2-way contest.

He took out a nomination paper to oppose Nick Schaefer for the post. Incumbent George J. Schwarz Greisch, who last week lost out in his bid for GOP attorney general endorsement, has not revealed whether he will try for a third term.

It is Schwarz's second try for the post. He lost out in a 3-way race in 1958 when Greisch defeated both aspirants. It is Schwarz's second try for political office.

He has lived in Appleton six years, is married and has five children.

Today's Deaths

Mrs. Fred De Guerre

Neenah — Mrs. Fred J. De Guerre, 46, of 218 Lorraine avenue, died at 8:55 p.m. Wednesday after an illness of eight weeks. The former Mildred Alferi, she was born Jan. 18, 1913 in Appleton and lived in Neenah for the last 20 years.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at Freedom Moravian church, with burial in Highland Memorial Park cemetery, Appleton. Friends may call at the Wichmann Funeral home from 2 p.m. Friday until 9:30 a.m. Saturday and then at the church.

Surviving are one son, Earl, route 1, Seymour, and one sister, Mrs. Herman Schneider, Appleton.

James L. Larson

Funeral services for James L. Larson, 28, Green Bay, were held this afternoon at the Heuer and Sievers Funeral home, Clintonville.

Burial was in Graceland cemetery, Clintonville. Larson died Tuesday in Green Bay after a long illness. He was born Aug. 2, 1931, in Keewaunee.

Begin Drive For 150 New Scout Leaders

26 Sponsors Ask Formation of Various Units

Requests for Boy Scout units from 26 sponsors has sparked an extensive campaign to enlist 150 adult leaders for the Boy Scout program.

The leadership drive will be conducted in Appleton, Neenah and Menasha. Arnold Cohodas, chairman of the Tri-Cities district executive committee, said today.

The Valley council office has received requests for nine cub packs, nine scout troops and eight explorer posts from schools, churches and service clubs, Cohodas said.

Have 718 Leaders
Fred Sordahl, Valley council executive, said the new units will include a minimum of 250 boys, with a total potential membership of 500.

"Currently we have 718 adult leaders in the Tri-Cities heading up the program for 2,542 boys in 63 units," Sordahl added.

Leadership training courses will be set up for the new leaders, Cohodas said.

Forfeits Bond

Paul J. Borowitz, 16, route 4, Green Bay, forfeited $28.95 bond and three points for ignoring a stop sign when he failed to appear in municipal court.

Worker Dies Of Injuries

Tractor Overturned On Man Tuesday South of Sherwood

Chilton — Adolph Krumpus, a 28-year-old highway construction employee from Townsend, Wis., died about 12:30 p.m. Wednesday at Calumet Memorial hospital here of injuries received when a tractor overturned Tuesday noon crushing him beneath it.

It was the sixth traffic fatality for the year in the county.

The accident occurred near the Y intersection of Highways 55 and 114, about one-half mile south of Sherwood. Krumpus, an employee of the Sweeney Construction company, Watertown, was operating the machine on a steep embankment of new construction when the tractor toppled and rolled over him.

He was placed on the critical list when admitted to the hospital suffering from multiple rib fractures, a broken right leg near the hip, facial injuries with a possible jaw fracture and severe shock. Chest injuries were the eventual cause of death, according to LeRoy Hughes, county coroner.

Green Bay Man Dies From Burns

From Power Line

Waukesha — (U) — Richard Germalt, a 30-year-old Green Bay painter, died early today of burns over 90 per cent of his body suffered when he touched a power line charged with 25,400 volts.

Germalt was painting a tower Wednesday when either his hand or brush came in contact with the high tension wire.

His clothing was aflame and his shoes smoldering when Leonard Durley of Rockford, Ill., the painting crew's foreman, and Germalt's brother, Gerald, 28, climbed the tower and rescued him. Firemen arrived and raised an aerial ladder so they could lower him to a stretcher.

Durley was treated for burns on his hand suffered when he tore away Germalt's clothing.

Germalt was working on a Wisconsin Electric Power company tower. He has been employed by the Richardson Painting company of Baraboo for the last two years.

Friday Is Deadline For Absentee Ballots

Friday is the last day that Appleton residents can get absentee ballots for Tuesday's special referendum election, City Clerk Elden J. Broehm has announced.

The elections are being held to determine whether Badger and Triangle school districts should be attached to Appleton for school purposes.

William Anton, 86, Bank Founder, Dies

William Anton, 86, Embarras, a founder of the Embarras state bank, died at about noon Wednesday in Clintonville after a long illness. He was born Nov. 23, 1873, in Dodge county, and moved to Embarras in 1905.

He farmed there until 1916, when he organized the Embarras state bank. He was vice president and cashier until his retirement in 1958.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at St. Martin's Lutheran church, Clintonville. Friends may call at the Eberhardt and Hoh Funeral home, Clintonville, after noon Friday until 10 a.m. Saturday, then at Embarras; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Anton is survived by two sons, Abner and Silas, both of Embarras; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at Mallery and Seefeld Funeral home, 755 Algoma boulevard, Oshkosh, with the Rev. James A. Daum, of First Presbyterian church, Oshkosh, in charge. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery, Oshkosh. Friends may call at the funeral home after 4:30 p.m. Friday.

There are no immediate survivors.

Former Member Of County Board, Assembly Dies

William A. Meyer, 83, of 633A Jefferson street, Oshkosh, a former assemblyman and Winnebago county board chairman, died at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday after a 1-week illness.

He was born in Oshkosh March 20, 1877. He operated a harness shop in Dale for 20 years before retiring and returning to Oshkosh in 1922. He served two terms as Winnebago county First district assemblyman in the state legislature, and also was a member of the Winnebago county board from 1927 to 1931.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at Mallery and Seefeld Funeral home, 755 Algoma boulevard, Oshkosh, with the Rev. James A. Daum, of First Presbyterian church, Oshkosh, in charge. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery, Oshkosh. Friends may call at the funeral home after 4:30 p.m. Friday.

There are no immediate survivors.

PET DOCTOR

By A. W. Moller, D.V.M.

Question: Approximately how much food should our dachshund consume daily?

Answer: Assuming your dog is full grown and enjoys a normal amount of exercise, this and other breeds of comparable size require one pound of canned dog food or two full cups of dried food daily. As you must know from television commercials, the variety of today's prepared dog food is endless. We are offered meat, meat and vegetables, pellets, kibbles, biscuits, etc. Experiment a little to find which food your dog prefers, but bear in mind that he needs daily vitamins, minerals and about 15 percent protein of meat and milk origin.

(Address your question to Dr. Moller in care of this paper. He will answer selected inquiries in his column, but cannot reply to them.)

Nelson Nominees Run GOP Gauntlet

Senate May Not Confirm Joe Nusbaum, David Carley

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Madison — Two top men of Gov. Nelson's administration Wednesday ran the gauntlet of the Republican state senate amid signs that they won't get separate confirmation of their nominations by the state executive.

They are, Joe E. Nusbaum, 40-year-old chief of the new state department of administration, a consolidated management service created by the legislature a year ago at the governor's request, and David Carley, 32, director of the department of economic development, also established a year ago with legislative approval as a means of pulling together various state planning, promotion and publicity agencies.

The hearing was held before a GOP-controlled committee

Room Honors Former Judge

Edgar V. Werner Served in 10th Judicial District

A conference room honoring Edgar Victor Werner, former circuit judge in Outagamie, Shawano and Langlade counties, has been dedicated in the Queens Bar headquarters building, Jamaica, N.Y.

Werner served as tenth judicial district judge from 1916 to 1940. He was defeated in the 1939 election by the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy.

The conference room was presented to the Queens Bar association by Victor D. Werner, son of the judge and attorney in Douglaston, N.Y. Victor Werner is considered a leading contender for nomination to the New York Supreme court.

Portrait in Courthouse

A portrait of Edgar Werner and a letter he wrote to his son on Victor Werner's 21st birthday anniversary were presented with the room.

Another portrait of Judge Werner hangs in the circuit court room of the Outagamie county courthouse.

headed by Sen. Leo O'Brien of Green Bay.

O'Brien hinted after the session that the committee may not report the nominations to the senate for a vote, but Nelson's testimony before the committee made it fairly clear that although he wants senate approval for the sake of the prestige of his men, the confirmation matter is largely a political technicality and they will stay in his official family in any case.

Nelson said the requirement for confirmation was a mistake, that he didn't like it, and that it was adopted by the legislature only because the GOP senate insisted upon it when the new agencies were created.

The officers serve only at the pleasure of the governor, he noted, and even if they are confirmed, he can let them go next day.

Stay Pigeonholed

The implication was clear to the Republican senators: He can also reappoint them next day if the senate rejects their nominations.

It is likely that the confirmations will remain pigeonholed in the O'Brien committee — the legislature is preparing to adjourn this week — and that Carley and Nusbaum will stay on during the rest of the Nelson regime, knowing that they will be dismissed if a Republican is elected to the governorship.

Nelson's appearance in the hearing room was unusual. He read statements of high praise about the character of his men, O'Brien responded with cordiality, noting that he was honored by the governor's presence in his committee room for the first time.

As the governor concluded, the Green Bay Republican asked the crowd in the room to "rise and stand."

"Silly Attack"

Nusbaum and Carley turned up after the committee sent messages requesting their presence.

Nelson, recognizing that Nusbaum has become a controversial figure because of his order of last year evicting the state conservation department from its downtown quarters, met the question head-on and called the agency's complaints "without sensible foundation."

"It has been one of the silliest attacks," he said, praising Nusbaum as devoted to efficient and economical service. Both men, he insisted, are "doing remarkably able and valuable work for the taxpayers of Wisconsin."

There were several letters and telegrams supporting the nominations, including a wire from Mayor Milo Knutson of LaCrosse. O'Brien called several times to invite opposition witnesses, but none appeared.

Acetylene Tank Burns At Conveyor Company

Clintonville — The volunteer fire department was called to the Atlas Conveyor company, Fifteenth street, at 2:25 p.m. Wednesday when an acetylene welding tank caught fire.

The safety valve opened on the tank, according to the firemen, and the tank was taken out of the building. The switch box was burned and other minor damage resulted.

Jill Harker, Carl Ziem Picked For Drama Honor

Neenah — Best Thespian awards and the announcement of new officers for the Thespian Troup 103 of Neenah High school were made at the troupe's annual banquet Wednesday night at the Valley Inn.

Jill Harker and Carl Ziem, both seniors, received the "Best Thespian" awards. They were chosen by their fellow Thespians on the basis of their contribution and participation in the club.

Miss Harker has been active in Thespians since her sophomore year and was president this year. She appeared in many plays and in the recent musical "Damn Yankees" and also was chairman of the makeup crew.

Active on the stage in numerous productions, including "Damn Yankees," Ziem also has directed one of the 1 act plays and served as assistant in "The Unerring Instinct." He served on several committees and was point recorder for the club.

New Officers — New officers chosen by the active Thespians are Dave Goodwin as president, Tom Hrubecy as vice president, Barbara Buchanan as secretary, Joan Bylow as treasurer and Kathy Holverson as historian.

Active members for next year are Bill Bayley, Barbara Buchanan, Joan Bylow, Hans Christofferson, Sue Fischer, Dave Goodwin, John Harker, Mollie Harker, Kathy Holverson, Dale Howe, Tom Hrubecy, Steve Lanzer, Ellen Long, Jon Nebel and Bill Shockley. Kenneth Anderson is adviser of the group.

Change Dates for Garbage Collection

Neenah — Because of Memorial day Monday, the garbage and burnable rubbish collection scheduled for Mondays will be held Tuesday and the normal Tuesday collection will be made Wednesday.

The non-burnable rubbish will be collected Wednesday as usual with next week's collection being in the Third, Fifth, Eighth and Tenth wards.

Fremont Youth Loses License for 6 Months

Oshkosh — Wayne Kempf, 17, route 2, Fremont, this morning had his driver's license revoked for six months on a reckless driving in municipal court. Acting Municipal Judge Floyd D. Atherton waived juvenile jurisdiction. Kempf was arrested by county authorities on County Trunk E in the town of Omro Tuesday.

POST CRESCENT News of the Twin Cities Menasha - Neenah

Parade, Program Plans Worked Out For Memorial Day

March From Menasha to Oak Hill Cemetery at 9 a.m.

Neenah — Details for the Memorial Day parade and program on Monday were announced today by co-chairmen George Henebry and Donald Raiche of the Hawley-Dieckhoff American Legion post which has charge of this year's observance.

The parade will start at Menasha at 9 a.m. and the program will be at the Oak Hill cemetery later in the morning. A water front service at the Menasha dock will precede the parade.

Henebry will give the introductory remarks at the cemetery program, followed by the national anthem played by the Neenah High school band and the invocation by the Rev. Frank Beck, assistant at St. Mary's Catholic church of Menasha.

On Program — Students taking part will be Steve King, Neenah High school, "General Logan's Memorial Day Order," Dennis Leatherman, Menasha High, "Lincoln's Gettysburg Address," Robert Van Dyke, St. Mary's High school, "Flanders' Field" and William Sonnenleiter, St. Mary's High school, "America's Answer." The Memorial day address will be by Col. Dan A. Hardt, chief of staff of the 127th Infantry regiment who will retire Tuesday after 40 years of service in the national guard. George J. Runde will give the GAR memorial address.

Selections will be played during the program by the Neenah High school band. The salute to the dead will be fired by Company E of the national guard and "Taps" will be played by Dave Heilsberg and John Severson of the Neenah High school band.

Announce Library Summer Hours

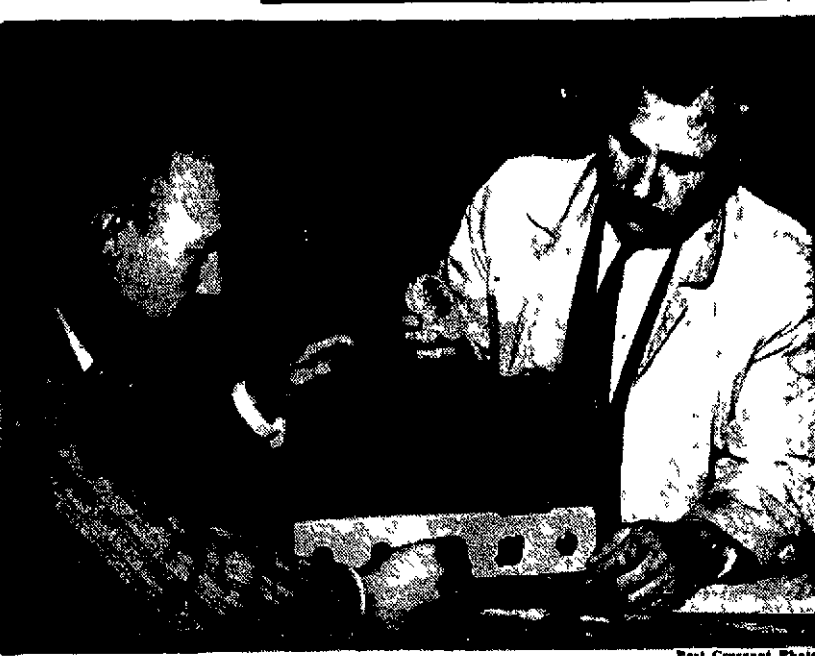

Menasha — The Elisha D. Smith public library summer schedule will go into effect Monday, June 6, announced Marvin Melick, head librarian.

During the summer months the Menasha library will be open from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays. Fridays the library will be open from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to noon. The summer schedule will remain in effect until Sept. 6.

The library will also be closed Monday, May 30, for Memorial day.

Neenah Man's Brother Dies in California

Neenah — Milton Monette, 48, brother of Al Monette, 628 Roosevelt street, died at his home in California at 5:10 p.m. Tuesday. He is survived by his widow, three children, three brothers and seven sisters.

Added to the Lake Winnebago boating safety equipment is a new 55-watt transmitter-receiver set, to be mounted on the Neenah Police boat. With the set are Harold L. Nelson, right, who with Dr. R. A. Juneau led a citizens' group in its purchase, and Neenah Police Chief Irving Stulp. The set will utilize one channel for emergencies and others to rescue communications.

For Police Boat Citizens Donate Radio For Lake Rescue Use

Neenah — A 55 watt radio transmitter-receiver has been donated for use aboard the Neenah police boat for rescuing boaters in trouble on Lakes Winnebago and Butte des Morts.

The set was procured through a citizens' committee led by Harold L. Nelson and Dr. R. A. Juneau. Clubs endorsing the new emergency radio set are Neenah Nodaway Yacht club, Oshkosh Yacht club, Fond du Lac Yacht club, Appleton Power Squadron and Appleton Yacht club.

One of the set's five available frequencies will be an emergency only channel, to be used by boaters in distress in this area. The frequency will be monitored 24 hours a day during the navigation season in the Neenah police station.

Reply from Boat — However, federal communications commission rules will forbid replying from the police station on a shore to ship basis, but the transmitter, mounted on the boat, will be used for replying.

Once contact is made with a troubled boater, on the emergency channel, police and boater will switch to another frequency to clear the emergency channel for other possible distress calls, Dr. Juneau said.

The new radio was purchased because many so-called "citizens' band" sets, with their 5-watt limits, are under police station, but receiving FCC permission for a shore-to-ship channel would take a long time. Less time would be required to secure a ship-to-ship channel, so the new radio was to be placed on the police boat.

The citizens' committee then found it had exceeded its donations for the equipment because an electricity converter also was needed to make the 110 volt radio operate on the boat which has a 12-volt electrical system, Dr. Juneau recounted.

240th SSA Check

Retired Since 1940 but Menasha Man Would Like to Start Over

Menasha — "I liked to work and I loved what I was doing. I would like to start all over again and work for a man just like Mowry Smith."

Jacob A. Hare, 65, 643 Third street, Menasha, who today is collecting his 240th social security check, worked 42 years at jobs he enjoyed. He retired in June, 1940, after 24 years at Menasha Wooden Ware corporation, starting in 1906 at $2 a day. When he retired he was a millwright and "knew my way around the plant pretty well."

Born in Morrisstown, Brown county, in 1874, Hare went to school until he was 14. Some of his classmates were "men with mustaches because it was a new school and they hadn't had a chance before."

Upon leaving school he worked as a lumberjack in Michigan for several years. "We were paid $22 a month," Hare recollected. "It was a heck of a hard life, but I loved the woods and still like to get out when the leaves begin to turn."

Worked on Railroad
The next few years he worked for the Chicago and North Western railroad and helped build the Walnut street bridge in Green Bay. He began at the Menasha Wooden Ware corporation in the "lowest possible job — they didn't know me or what I could do then."

"One day Mowry asked me to go to his house to fix the dock," he said. "There was a lot of splashing behind me but I didn't pay much attention at first — thought it was a lot of carp jumping. When I turned around here was this little guy about four years old who had fallen in — Mowry's youngest, it was I fished him out by the seat of the pants and told him to go up to the house to get some dry clothes on. I figured that was the last time he'd play around there for awhile. In about half an hour he came back with his lunch in a bucket like mine and we ate together and got to be great friends. I showed him how to use a plane and to read the numbers on it."

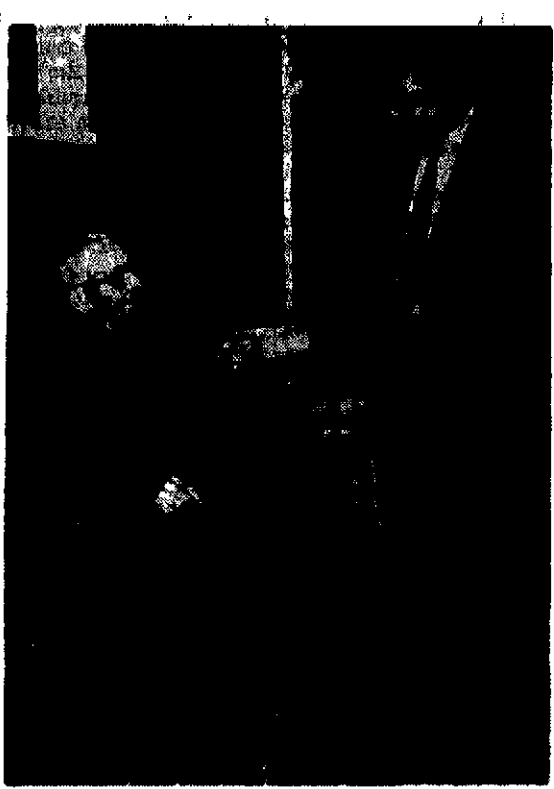

With the delivery of his June benefit check, Hare will have rounded out 20 years as a social security beneficiary. Frank Donnack, district manager of the Appleton social security office, said about 28,500 people have been receiving social security payments for 20 years.

Social security records, by law, are strictly confidential but Mr. Hare gave the social security administration permission to publicize facts regarding his file, Donnack explained. There are two other Neenah — Menasha residents who have been receiving social security benefit payments for 20 years. When payments first started 222,500 people were eligible for benefits but only approximately 28,500 of that number still remain.

The average monthly benefit payable to a retired worker in 1940 was $22.60. The average old-age insurance benefit awarded in 1959 was about $80.

Hare's nephew and his wife and three children live with him. He is still active and likes to fish and go camping with the family. His wife died in 1934. He enjoys life and having young people around him.

"I figure the way to get along on a job is to meet everybody a little better than half way," Hare said. "The people at Wooden Ware figured the same way and we got along just fine. I would work half way." Hare said "The for them all over again if I could."

Post-Crescent Photo

Receiving His 240th Social Security check from Frank Donnack, district manager of the Appleton Social Security office, is Jacob A. Hare, 643 Third street, Menasha. One of approximately 28,500 people in the country who has been receiving social security benefits since June, 1940, Hare worked for Menasha Wooden Ware corporation for 34 years.

Malouf Named State Police Group Director

Neenah — Capt. Lawrence Malouf of the police force was elected to fill out the year remaining in the term of Clarence Toeppler, retired Neenah police captain, as a director of the Wisconsin Police Protective association at its convention at Racine from Sunday through Tuesday.

Capt. Malouf and James Hawley of the force attended the convention. They resigned as secretary since 1951 was accepted. Pensions and insurance programs were discussed and referred to committees for investigation. Officers elected were Donald Dodge, Racine, president; John Havel, Fond du Lac, vice president; Raymond P. Cray, Madison, secretary; and Louis Wrasse, Wauwatosa, treasurer.

Neighborhood Honors Cubs Of Pack 14

Menasha—Cub Pack 14 was presented an achievement award from the neighborhood unit of the Valley Council of Boy Scouts Tuesday night at the Congregational church by Norman Coan, neighborhood chairman, who also delivered the pack's new charter.
Den 4 presented a minstrel show featuring Bruce McMyler, interactor; Bill Resch and Will Joslyn, end men, and David Rochon, Tom Fucik and Tom Joslyn, minstrels.
Richard Burrows achieved the Webelos rank and was graduated into Boy Scouting in ceremonies conducted by Ralph Swoboda and Scoutmaster George Fucik of Troop 14.
The pack will march in the Memorial day parade.

DR. GUY BENNETT

THE RYATTS

Lesson in English

BY W. L. GORDON

Words often misused: Distinguish between contemptible (worthy of contempt or scorn) and contemptuous (feeling contempt or scorn). Thus "That was a contemptible act on his part," and, "A brave man is often contemptuous of a coward."

Often mispronounced: Leicester, England. Pronounce as though spelled "Lester."

Often misspelled: "Mesdames" is the correct plural of "madame."

Word study: "Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day.

Today's word: nugatory, worthless; useless (Pronounce nyu-ga-toh ri, accent first syllable). "Advice can become nugatory when given too freely or too often."

Look and Learn

BY A. C. GORDON

1. What is the difference between a cultured and a natural pearl?

2. What nation is sometimes referred to as the "treeless country," because of the scarcity of trees and their stunted growth?

3. What Biblical character became insane and ate grass?

4. Which U. S. state claims 10,000 lakes?

Answers

1. Cultured pearls are made by artificially introducing a small bead inside the oyster, while natural pearls are formed by chance around the body of a parasite or a grain of sand.

2. Iceland.

3. Nebuchadnezzar.

4. Minnesota, known as "The Land of 10,000 Lakes."

College Rural Education Head Retires July 1

Prof. May Stewart Joined Oshkosh School in 1926

Oshkosh — Thirty - four years of teaching and administrative work will come to a close at Oshkosh State college July 1 when Prof May L Stewart retires. Her name has been synonymous with rural education as she served as director of that field of teaching at the college.

Her dedication to teaching seems a natural one in light of family influence. Her father, a Michigan farmer, was convinced of the power of education. Because a rural school was not accessible near the family farm, her father moved the family into a nearby village and "commuted" to work his farm. Six of the 10 Stewart children entered the teaching field.

Although her own education at first laid stress on foreign languages, her interest shifted to rural education before she received a bachelor's degree in 1922 and a master's degree in 1923 from the University of Chicago.

She spent six years as superintendent of the Charlevoix county schools in Michigan to which she was elected after several years of teaching in rural and secondary schools. From this period onward, rural education became her life.

Sought Better Teachers Her purpose became to educate teachers for rural school and during her own teaching career she took time to study at the University of Michigan, University of Chicago, Stanford university Columbia university, University of Minnesota and University of Colorado. She also spent time abroad to observe rural education in Europe, South America, Mexico and Canada.

As rural life patterns changed, she advocated keeping up with the trends, such as the consolidated school in preference to the many 1 room, 1 teacher crossroads schools and of more and more training for rural teachers.

Looking back over the more than 34 years she has been at the college, Miss Stewart feels the rural education students of today are superior to those of the past as they are more independent.

Neenah Netters Nip Menasha for 11th Straight Win

Wind Up Unbeaten Season;
Capture M-E League Crown

Menasha — Neenah con-cluded an unbeaten tennis season by edging Menasha 4-3 in the dual windup for both clubs here Wednesday afternoon.

The Rockets closed with 11 straight wins. Other matches with Appleton, Shorewood and Wauwatosa were rained out and then cancelled. The Red and White also concluded their Mid-Eastern conference slate with six straight wins, giving them their 10th straight crown. They have been unbeaten in league play since 1954.

In Wednesday's match, the Rockets copped the top three singles and the No. 1 doubles. Winners were Dick Wilson, Steve Price and Doug Anderson. Wilson and Price posted the doubles point.

Menasha victors were Dan Artt and Bill Ritchie in sin-

Takes 5-5 Valley
League Mark Into Final Doubleheader

Menasha — St. Mary will conclude its baseball season with a doubleheader beginning at 3 p.m. Friday at Oshkosh. The program was rained out on May 7 and wasn't made up immediately because both clubs were involved in tournament play.

The Zephyrs currently have a 5-5 Fox River Valley conference mark on three wins over Fond du Lac and two over Manitowoc. Oshkosh is tied for first with a 6-4 slate. Manitowoc has a similar mark but still is involved in tournament play and it is questionable if its twin bill with Fond du Lac will be played, especially if the Shipbuilders cop its sectional.

St. Mary's overall mark is 5-7. It has been idle since losing to Stevens Point Pacelli in the rain of the state Catholic tournament last Friday night.

Oshkosh recorded 4-2 and 5-3 wins in the first double-header meeting between the two clubs.

Collects 203 Game In Grade Pin League

Menasha — Bob Dachelet cracked a 203 game and Bob Wendt had 406 series in the Baseball Grade School Bowling league Monday afternoon at Mid-Town. Jim Dachelet rolled a 176 loner.

The White Sox team leads with a 16-2 record. Its first place margin is four games.

Oshkosh State '9' Topples Macs 12-1

Innings; Heiss Hits Homer

Menasha — Oshkosh State the trio, was the most effective. Making his first Mac appearance, he worked the last three innings and gave up two runs, one hit, walked four, hit two batters and struck out seven. One of the runs was unearned.

Bill Willing started, and gave way to Cliff Reed in the fourth. The latter pitched three complete innings. Willing took the loss.

Macs Get 5 Hits

The Macs only made five hits off three Oshkosh pitchers and they weren't able to collect more than one in any inning. The lone run came on a homer by Manager "Fritz" Heiss in the second inning.

Bob Karisny, who patrols centerfield for the Macs when the collegians aren't playing, had a 3-run blast off Reed in the fourth. Mac catcher Jerry Koslowski was the Titan receiver.

Jerry Krzewina started for Oshkosh, Denny Rens relieved in the fourth and Tom Krebsbach worked the final inning. They walked five and struck out 12.

Titans Strand 12

Karisny, Stan Reinsner, Terry Tighe and Wayne Huebner all had two hits for Oshkosh while Heiss had two of Menasha's five. The Titans stranded 12 baserunners and the Macs left 11. In the error department, the Macs had a 4-2 edge.

Oshkosh was blanked in the first, fifth and seventh but managed men on bases in each inning. A double play halted a Titan threat in the first.

NNYC Cancels Memorial Day Race Schedule

Neenah — Because the river and current conditions make launching and sailing hazardous, the Neenah Nodaway Yacht club has cancelled its traditional Memorial Day races, Commodore Eric Isakson reported today.

Conditions permitting, the sailors will begin their season on June 4. Plans for the season were discussed at a meeting of the board of directors Wednesday night.

The club again will hold sailing classes but they will be directed to the racing skipper and crew instead of beginners as last year. Bob Kimberly will be in charge. Because of the late start, the annual spring meeting will be held the weekend of June 11 instead of in May as in previous years. The late date will enable members who are away at school to attend.

Banta's Take on Rambler Nine in Industrial Loop

Neenah — Banta's and the Marathon Ramblers, last year's Twin City Industrial Softball league champion and runnerup, clash at 6:30 p.m. today in a National division contest at the Recreation field.

The Ramblers won their opening game Tuesday night while the Publishers were defeated.

The 8 p.m. game will match Wisconsin Tissue Mill's against Neenah Paper in an American section test. Both will be playing their initial games.

Lakeview and Neenah Foundry collide at 6:30 at Jefferson park in a National league fracas and Bergstrom Paper and the Marathon Packagers vie in the same league at 8 p.m. Foundry lost its first game and all of the others will play for the first time.

Neenah High Draws Oakfield as Initial Section Opponent

Assigned to Manitowoc Tourney; Ships Face
Oostburg; Oaks Hold Victory Over Ripon

Neenah — Neenah enters sectional tournament play Kawaskum, Lomira and with a 6 p.m. contest today against Oakfield at Manitowoc. The host shipbuilders were scheduled to face Oostburg in the opener.

In the event of rain, the same schedule will be followed Friday. The two winners will decide when they will play the finals.

The Rockets upset the apple cart in their previous three starts, nipping Oshkosh, Menasha and Hortonville, all by one run. They had their 4 game win string severed by Kaukauna in a Mid-Eastern conference game Tuesday afternoon.

Oakfield is led by Walt Flury, who hurled a 1-hitter as the Oaks downed Ripon 5-0 Tuesday in the district tournament playoff. He struck out 11 and helped his own cause by cracking out three hits and driving in three runs. Flury hurled his team to its district tourney win over Fond du Lac the preceding day.

Gajewski LeRoy Steffin

cation Monday, all produced winning records, marks which include 10 championships of one type or another. The total log shows 155 wins, 117 losses and five ties.

The trio, Carl Steffin, head baseball and football coach; Bernie LeRoy, track mentor, and Lucian Gajewski, coach, will be succeeded by members of the physical education staff beginning next fall.

Steffin was hired as commercial teacher and football coach in the summer of 1952 when John Bachhuber resigned. His eight football teams had a composite record of 33-24-5. The 1953 and 1958 eleven took undisputed championships of the Mid-Eastern conference and his first team in 1952 tied Neenah for first place. The three championship teams all had 6-1-1 records.

Steffin began coaching baseball in 1956 when Eric Kitzman moved on to Oshkosh State college. His five teams posted a 37-34 record. The Bluejay nine took the conference championship in 1956 and tied with Clintonville and Kaukauna for honors this spring. The 1957 club won the district champion-

Warns Against 'Candy' Fireworks

Menasha — Police Chief Peter P. Clark today warned merchants not to sell and residents in general not to buy and detonate the small packages of fireworks "torpedoes" of the type which injured a Green Bay woman Monday.

Clark said one or two merchants have been selling the fireworks, which are against state law. He did not know whether the merchants would be prosecuted for sale of the fireworks.

The Green Bay woman thought the "torpedo" was a piece of candy. They come in varying colors and look like candy. When the woman bit the "torpedo," it exploded, giving her mouth and inner ear injuries.

The only fireworks allowed in Wisconsin are sparklers and caps.

Released From Hospital

Neenah — George Tiffany, 56, 1802 Wilson street, Oshkosh, was released from the Clark hospital this morning where he was taken at 10:15 a.m. Wednesday when he fell from a truck at the Neenah Foundry company. He was employed by an Oshkosh firm and was thought to have injured his back ship and moved into the sectional finals before losing to Hortonville. The best record was a 12-3 by the 1958 aggregation.

The track and field team, coached by LeRoy since 1953, has a 20-13 record in dual competition and nine wins in triangular as against seconds and third on seven occasions.

His Bluejay thincade won class B sectional championships at Ripon in 1954, 1955 and 1956, took the Mid-Eastern conference title in 1955 and were second in 1959.

Second in State The Jays were second in the state meet in 1956, losing by just two points to Greendale. They were third the preceding year. In his tenure, athletes set 13 of the current 14 school records.

Among the boys he coached were Tom Hyde, now at the University of Iowa; Bob Osiewalski, Ripon college; Don Emerich, Lawrence college; Bill Hutchins, who still holds the conference 440 yard run mark, and "Rocky" Jerzild, now at Stevens Point State college.

Gajewski has been head basketball coach since the 1955-56 season, when he took over the reins from Kitzman. His record shows 56 wins and 49 losses. His first team had the best record — 16-7.

Before coaching the varsity Gajewski had an outstanding jayvee log, posting about 125 wins and only 20 losses. He has been at Menasha since 1944.

The 1953 jayvee team was unbeaten in 19 games and the next year's edition ran the win string to 28 before losing Menasha High School's Yearbook, "Nicolet 1960," distributed last week, is dedicated to Dalton Schoening, English and drama instructor. With Schoening at the dedication presentation were the yearbook's co-editors, Judy Zimmerman and Wayne Doverspike.

Neenah Terrier Wins Award At Winnegamie Club Match

Neenah — A Boston terrier, exhibited by Mrs. Dorothy Worzalla, Neenah, received a best of breed trophy in the Winnegamie Dog club's sanctioned match at the Rainbow Gardens.

The show was held Sunday and announcement of award winners were made today by Mrs. Peter Melchior, Appleton, general chairman.

The best dog in match award went to a dachshund, "Dachskell's Dark Lustre," owned by Charles Kellogg, Wausau. Winner in the sport-group with a miniature poodle.

Best of breed winners, besides Mrs. Worzalla, were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Dashner, Appleton, English springer spaniel, Karen Fehrman, Appleton, St. Bernard; and Mr. and Mrs. Dashner, dandie dimont terrier.

In the obedience classes, a golden retriever owned by Joseph Bottkol, Green Bay, scored 189 out of a possible 200 points to take top honors. Other winners were Joan Abraham, Wauwatosa; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gross, Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. Gary A. DeBauche, De Pere, and Joseph W. Lechner, Milwaukee, Barbara Lepper, Thiensville, was the winner of the junior showmanship contest.

Other winners included Mrs. Lee D. Odegaard, Madison, tops in the toy group with her pug, and Donald K. Johnson and Gordon L. Mey-Johnson, Milwaukee, non-sporting.

Boy, 7, Slightly Hurt While Crossing Road
Neenah — An abrasion of the right elbow and a bruise on his right leg were received by Richard Koehn, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Koehn, 616 Lincoln street, when he and a car driven by Mary Ellen Nickasch, 16, 603 S. Park avenue, collided at the intersection of Lincoln and Fifth streets at 5:05 p.m. Wednesday.

The boy had been standing with a group of children and then suddenly ran across the street in front of her car. Miss Nickasch told police. She applied her brakes but collided with the boy.

Neenah Crews Plant Street Flower Boxes
Neenah — Street crews, working from 5 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. Wednesday, completed planting the flower boxes on the ornamental light poles as part of the city beautification project.

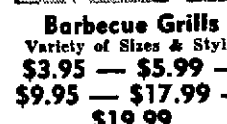

The six men worked under the direction of representatives of the Kraemer greenhouse.

Blood Center Works Like Insurance Policy

The Appleton Community Blood center, celebrated its birthday May 26, winding up its fifth year with 372 new family plan members during the preceding 12 months, bringing the total family plan membership since 1955 to 4,000.

The blood center's biggest influx of new members came during March, 1958, when members of the seven King's Daughters circles undertook a recruitment campaign. They netted 360 new members.

Since opening day five years ago, 7,500 pints of blood have been drawn, processed and distributed to the three hospitals the center serves — St. Elizabeth, Appleton Memorial and Kaukauna Community, as well as to University hospitals in Madison where the Appleton center has serviced open heart surgery patients from its area.

Big Month Records kept by Miss Helen McGrath, executive director, show that the center's biggest month was January, 1958, when 174 pints of blood were used. When the center began operation, only two hospitals its members will be supplied with all the blood they need for emergency, surgical or medical purposes, no matter what the amount, provided one person in that family has signed up as a donor to "cover" his family. It's like an insurance plan.

The pint of blood that donor provides when he is called — it works out to about once a year, although in many cases it's not that often, depending upon the demand for his blood type — is the "insurance premium."

He appears at the blood center in city hall in response to a phone call early in the week. He enters the center's suite of rooms with its pastel green walls, cheerful yellow upholstered chairs and benches, fresh green growing plants, several tables where coffee and cookies are served and friendly and welcoming workers. He gives his medical history, his blood is typed and checked for hemoglobin count, temperature, blood pressure and pulse are checked.

In the drawing room, after a brief wait for his turn, he rests comfortably on a treatment table and skilled nurses draw the pint of blood. He relaxes a bit, surveys the tiny patch bandage at the crook of his arm, has a cup of coffee or juice on the way out and goes home feeling pretty good about the whole thing. His family is safe. He is one pint of blood or 30, tomorrow or a year from now, at home or half-way across the country, it is available at the cost of processing — $10 as opposed to $35.

Meanwhile, as the Wednesday drawings are completed, the blood is processed, labeled, and delivered the following morning to the three hospitals. The number of units drawn on a given Wednesday is determined by the hospital's anticipated needs for the week, based on their surgical schedules and medical requirements of their patients.

Family plan membership makes unnecessary what can be almost endless telephoning to seek replacement donors — no fun when a family has just undergone a harrowing day waiting for one of its members to come down from surgery.

Opponents Can Help Win Game

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD
Don't try to do everything by yourself. It's crucial to let the opponents sit idle and get fat. Give them exercise, say the insurance companies. It's profitable as well as humane.
West opens the three of spades, and dummy wins. Try the trump finesse, losing to the king. Back comes a spade.
Now you have work to do in both clubs and diamonds. If you try to do all the work by yourself, you will wind up losing two diamonds and a club. The proper plan is to work on one suit and let the opponents work on the other.
Start With Clubs
Suppose you draw trumps and start with a club finesse. The finesse works, and you continue clubs by playing the ace and then a low club.
East takes the king of clubs and must then lead a diamond, since a spade return would allow dummy to ruff while you discarded a diamond from your hand. You play low, and West must use the jack to force out dummy's ace. Now you return a diamond and use the nine to drive out West's king.

The play will go equally well if you start with the diamonds and force the opponents to start the clubs. Lead a diamond to the queen, losing to the king. Back comes a diamond, and you take the ace of diamonds and get out with a diamond. Now if West leads a club you can play the nine from dummy to trap East's king.
It doesn't matter very much which suit you start with as long as you stick to it. Give the opponents their chance to start the other suit.

Daily Question
Partner opens with one spade, and the next player passes. You hold: S-10 8, H-A J 10 7, D-Q 9 4, C-A J 7 5. What do you say?
Answer: Bid two NT. This shows balanced distribution, strength in all unbid suits, and 13 to 15 points. Actually, you have only 12 points, but should be willing to stretch a point in view of the two tens and other high spot cards. It's a timid player who won't stretch a point once in a while.

Shish Kabob Favorite Outdoor Barbecue Food

Thursday, May 24, 1960 Appleton Post-Crescent C12

Ground Beef, Cheese and Bacon are used for the kabobs above. Balls of seasoned beef are centered with small chunks of sharp Cheddar cheese, then are wrapped in bacon. Alternate these on skewers with mushroom caps, small onions and tomato wedges. Grill the kabobs from 10 to 15 minutes. Baste the vegetables with butter while cooking. If the meat is preferred rare, slip morsels rather close together on the skewers. For well-done meat, separate the pieces slightly.

Cubes of Beef are Marinated for several hours in the Tabasco Kabobs, right. Then the beef pieces are alternated with various vegetables on skewers just before grilling time. Below, Shrimp a la Broche combines mild onions, green pepper squares, tomato wedges and mushroom pieces. All are marinated in a sauce for three to four hours before cooking outdoors, in a rotisserie or broiler.

BY LILLIAN MACKESY
Post-Crescent Food Editor

Call them kabobs . . . kebabs . . . shish kabobs or just plain meal-on-a-stick . . . they all mean the same thing . . . skewer cookery that is one of the most delightful influences in our modern passion for outdoor meals.

This method of cookery has its origins in the Near East, but has been happily adopted by the many enthusiastic outdoor cooks across the land. On swords or fancy skewers . . . or on skinned and sharply pointed sticks at a campfire . . . food broiled over an open fire is incomparable in flavor. Table-size braziers or grills are particularly useful for this purpose and it is fun to thread the skewers and tend to the cooking yourself.

Beef, lamb, shrimp, ground beef, franks and luncheon meats all lend themselves to this type of barbecue. For many of the meats it is best to marinate them beforehand to make them tender and flavorful, since skewer cookery is fast and might leave uncooked meats undone.

Oil and vinegar usually are basic marinade ingredients, but popular substitutes for the vinegar include lime juice, lemon juice, wine or beer.

Vegetables are alternated with the chosen meat and can be such choices as onions, green pepper and tomato. Mushrooms, eggplant chunks or slices and pineapple cubes also make good additions to kabobs.

Here are several kabob variations . . . all guaranteed to provide good eating.

Tabasco Kabobs

1 teaspoon Tabasco sauce
1 cup salad oil
1 cup lime or lemon juice
1 cup red wine (optional)
1 tablespoon onion juice
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon basil

2 pounds beef chuck or lamb shoulder, cut in 1 1/2-inch cubes
1 green pepper, cut in 1-inch pieces

3 tomatoes, quartered
12 small whole onions

Blend Tabasco, salad oil, lime juice, wine and onion juice in bowl. Add dry mustard, salt and basil. If chuck is used, sprinkle with unseasoned meat tenderizer according to label directions. Let stand five hours or overnight. Alternate meat and vegetable on skewers. Place on grill about four inches from heat. Broil approximately 10 minutes on each side. These also may be cooked in a pre-heated broiler.

Shrimp a la Broche
1 pound small mild onions
2 green peppers
2 pounds tomatoes
1 pound shrimp, fresh or frozen

1 to 1 pound mushrooms, fresh or canned
1 recipe marinating sauce

Peel and cook onions in salted boiling water for about 10 minutes or until almost tender; drain. Remove seeds, stems from pepper and cut into quarters or 2-inch squares. Cook in boiling water for about five minutes or until almost tender; drain.

Cut tomatoes in wedges or quarters. If small, cut in halves. Clean and devein shrimp. If frozen, allow to defrost. If using fresh mushrooms, wash and remove stems and cut in suitable pieces.

Place onions, peppers, tomatoes, shrimp and mushrooms in large flat dish. Pour marinating sauce over food and let stand in the refrigerator three to four hours. Turn vegetables and shrimp several times to obtain an even flavor.

When ready to cook, remove from marinade and drain. Arrange shrimp and mushrooms on skewers alternating with vegetables. Leave about one-fourth inch space between each piece on skewer.

Grill over hot coals to your taste, about 10 to 20 minutes. The food should be about three inches away from heat source. Turn skewer occasionally as food cooks. Brush food with marinade to give it a high gloss. Recipe makes four to six servings.

Barbecue Kabobs
1 pound frankfurters
12 ounces canned luncheon meat
1 can pineapple chunks (No. 2 1/2 can)
1 pound tomatoes
1 recipe marinating sauce

barbecue sauce
Cut frankfurters and luncheon meat into 16 equal chunks. Let stand in marinating sauce for about two hours. Drain. Drain pineapple chunks. Cut tomatoes into 16 pieces.

On skewers, alternate cubes

Marinade For Kabobs Well Spiced

Although there are as many recipes for meat marinades as there are cooks to make them, the general rule to follow is to make sure the sauce is well seasoned.

Liquid seasoners such as Tabasco and Worcestershire sauces are ideal to use because they blend smoothly with other ingredients, leaving no unseasoned areas.

Oil and vinegar (or lemon juice) are basic ingredients in this particular marinade, but other liquids may be substituted according to preference and experimentation.

Besides soaking the meat, the marinating sauce may be used for brushing kabobs to give the food a high glaze. After use, it can be strained, covered and stored in the refrigerator for future barbecues.

Marinating Sauce
1 clove garlic
1 cup corn oil
1 cup vinegar or lemon juice
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Dash cayenne pepper
Few drops Tabasco sauce
Slice clove of garlic into bowl. Add remaining ingredients. Stir until well blended. Pour carefully over fish, shellfish, cubed meat or vegetables to be grilled or broiled. Marinate shrimp and vegetables or other meat or fish from two to four hours. Makes about three-fourths cup sauce.

Brownies Honor Troop Founding
Brownies of Troops 10 and 192 at St. Joseph Catholic school held an anniversary party at 3:30 p.m. Monday in the school recreation room. Mothers of the girls attended.

Committee members who planned the occasion were Mrs. Jerome Van Handel, Edward Hildebrand and Ernest Feavel. Leaders of the troops are Mrs. Robert Zelle, Thomas Scheiber and Ben Scherer.

In March the girls toured a maple syrup farm at Dale, in April the Wisconsin Distributing company and in May the Memorial Drive Florists. Refreshments were served, and the Scouts entertained with songs.

The Shish Kabob is an adaptable sort of one-meal dish, using all sorts of meat and vegetable variations. Above, chunks of lean lamb are combined with slices of eggplant, pepper pieces, mushroom caps and onion. Below, cut-up frankfurters and canned luncheon meat squares team up with pineapple chunks and tomato wedges.

of franks, tomatoes, luncheon meats and pineapple. Place on broiler racks and cook until lightly browned, about 10 minutes on each side. Makes about eight kabobs. Serve with barbecue sauce.

Lamb Shish Kabob
18 chunks lean lamb, 1 1/2-inch squares
12 large mushroom caps
1 eggplant
2 green peppers
1 medium onion, thickly sliced

1 cup olive oil
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon oregano or thyme

Cut unpeeled eggplant into 1-inch slices, then cut each slice in two. Cut peppers into 2-inch squares. Strings meat and vegetables alternately on six skewers.

Combine olive oil, salt and herbs. Brush skewered meat and vegetables generously with mixture. Place skewers over charcoal fire, turn occasionally as meat browns, continuing to brush with olive oil mixture.

To avoid flaring, place boat-shaped foil directly under the meat with charcoal piled on either side. Serve with cooked rice, kept hot in covered glass casserole. If preferred, the meat may be marinated beforehand, which will speed up the outdoor cooking time.

In Fact Taste Facts Rule On Proper Behavior

BY EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: A girl friend and I went to Florida for a 2-week vacation. On the fourth day of our vacation, my girl friend received a telegram stating that her mother had died suddenly and to please return home at once. She flew home as soon as she could. I did not, how-ever, go with her but stayed on for the remainder of my vacation. She is very much hurt because I did not leave with her. I would like to know if I was wrong not to accom-pany her home?

Answer: If you were inti-mate friends so that your presence beside her would have been a real help and comfort to her in her grief, your not going with her was heartless. If you were hardly more than acquaintances and taking your vacations togeth-er as a matter of mutual con-venience and not because of great friendship, I do not think she should have been hurt because you stayed be-hind to finish the rest of your vacation.

Bad Manners
Dear Mrs. Post: My hus-band has a habit of pushing his plate away from him when he has finished eating. He not only does this at home but also when we dine out. I think this is bad table man-ners and I have told him so, but he says he can't see any-thing wrong in the habit and continues to do it. Perhaps if I can show him something from you, he will stop this practice.

Answer: Pushing his plate away from him when he has finished eating is indeed bad table manners and I hope that this answer will help you to break him of the habit.

Dear Mrs. Post: When someone is moving to a dis-tant city, whose place is it to visit who to say good-bye? Is it up to those who are moving away to call on their friends to bid them good-bye, or do their friends go to see them before they leave? Al-so, is a going away gift cus-tomary?

Answer: It is up to those who are leaving to say good-bye to their friends who oth-erwise might not know of their plans. A going away present is not customary.

Low-Calorie Dressings

A lovely asks: "Do you have any recipes for low-calorie dressings to toss with green salads? Without dressing, it is awfully hard for us reducers to eat all the recommended rabbit food. If we use regular dressings, which I understand are high-calorie, we might as well eat the dessert we crave instead."

The answer: Regular salad dressings contain about 100 calories per tablespoon. Almost all desserts, particularly the kind dieters crave, count much more. That makes a green salad, however dressed, a good buy. It becomes a real bargain, however, when tossed with a low-calorie concoction. Two very good ones follow:

Russian Dressing
To one cup buttermilk, add one-half teaspoon Angostura bitters, one-fourth teaspoon salt, two tablespoons chili sauce, one tablespoon minced onion. Stir until mixed. Six calories per tablespoon.

French Dressing
Combine cup canned toma-

Your Problems

Question of Child's Education Brings Talk From Population

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN: I've never written a letter to a newspaper or to a magazine in my life, but after reading your column today (about parents being paid back for giving their children a college education) I just had to write to you.

In the past two years we have seen two sons and a daughter get college diplomas. They all worked part-time and we paid the rest.

In the last six years Dad and I have had no vacations. Our car is just about ready for a junk-heap. The furniture in our house is falling apart. But who cares? None of this means a thing compared to knowing that our children are given a first class education.

Pay us back? They've paid us back—a thousand times, by being the kind of people we want them to be. We have two other children who will enter college soon. God-willing we will see them through, too.—Proud of Our Kids

Dear Ann: The letter on whether or not children owe their parents for a college education brought back some painful memories.

Our son always went with the rich kids in school, although we had very little. My husband owned a small tailor shop and I helped him with the sewing at night.

When our son told us he wanted to go to a big eastern school and it would cost us $3,000 a year it sounded like a million. He said he couldn't work his way through because it was a hard school and he needed all his time and energy for studying.

Well, Pa and I scraped together our savings, we made a loan, I took in two roomers, and our son got his college education. I saved in a secret account for our train fare so when he graduated we could see him get his diploma. But we never made that trip. Do you know why? He never invited us.

Pa was heart-broken but he never said anything. Along about August I asked our son why and he said, "You would have felt out of place with all those swells."

He married a fancy girl he met in the east and we don't see them very often although they live right in this town. Maybe we raised him wrong, but we did the best we could. I hope he does better with his son than we did with ours.—Unhappy Parents.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a professor in a midwestern college and was deeply interested in the column which raised the question of whether children "owe" their parents for sacrifices made to send them to college.

For almost 20 years I've watched students come and go. Do you know who, almost without exception, are the outstanding students? Those who are on partial or complete scholarships and must work to stay in school. They seem to have a better comprehension of what a college education means, and are willing to make sacrifices to get it.

Do you know who are the poorest students are — the ones who wash out and hate to make it by the skin of their teeth? The students whose parents send them with swanky clothes, hi-fi machines, electric typewriters, automobiles and lots of spending money. These students don't have to do anything but concentrate on their work, but they don't. They are too busy with their hi-fis, automobiles and spending money. — The Owl

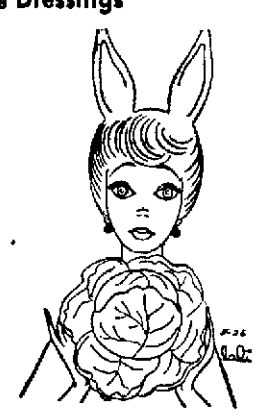

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so, send for Ann Landers' booklet, "How To Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Compare China to Household Tiles

The strong resemblance between the glazed ceramic tile in your home and the china-ware on your table is no coincidence. They are produced by similar processes. Tile begins as moist, pulverized clay, flint, shale and feldspar. This mixture is pressed in dies. Now in its first recognizable form the unfired tile is sprayed with liquid glaze. At this stage the tile is an unpromising gray mass. After exposure to intense but delicately controlled heat the material as it appears on walls emerges to soup with one-half cup tarragon vinegar, one-half teaspoon celery seed, dashes onion juice and Worcestershire sauce. Use whisk to mix. Five calories per tablespoon.

In addition to homemade varieties, there is a growing selection of prepared dressings low in calories. They are found in dietetic sections of grocery and drug stores.

Triangle is Example of Vanishing 1-Room School

Independent or City District
Must Find Room for More Pupils

BY BONNIE BARSTOW
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Triangle school, near the intersection of 10 and 76 west of Appleton, is one of a vanishing breed — the 1-room school. Rising enrollment and district reorganization soon may force Triangle to build a bigger school or send its children elsewhere.

The 15 pupils it had in 1945 and 1946 increased to 22 in 1950 and 36 at the end of this school year. It had 29 pupils in January, gained 11 and lost four during the spring term.

Of the peak enrollment of 40, five pupils were in first grade, five in second, two in third, seven in fourth, 10 in fourth and history and health in seventh.

In such courses as reading, Mrs. Winters works with each grade for a short time while the others study or work quietly.

The children are in school from 9 a.m. to noon and from 12:45 to 3:45 p.m. There are 10 minutes of supervised recess in the morning and 25 minutes in the afternoon. The children go outside to play if the weather is good or use the basement or classroom if it is bad. They can roller skate, dance and play games in the basement.

Church Schools Help

If it weren't for the fact that many children from the district attend parochial school, the district would have needed a new school five years ago, Pennings said.

The present brick building was constructed in 1930, after the state building inspector condemned the old school. The building cost $7,000 in 1930; now, with new furniture, water and plumbing systems, it is estimated to be worth about $30,000.

The teacher, Mrs. Walter Winters, Menasha, has had two years of college, as is customary for rural schools. She receives $400 a month for nine months, in contrast to the $800 a month that a teacher received for nine months in 1923.

Learn Three Rs

Beginning in the first grade, the pupils learn reading, arithmetic, penman s h i p, grammar and art. They begin spelling in second grade, music in third, geography in

City Moves Closer

In the last election, about 150 residents of the district voted. Most of them are farmers, but the Appleton urban area is moving out into the district. Between 15 and 20 new homes were built during the last year in the Outagamie county plat, which once was part of the county farm.

The county hospital is in the district but is not taxable. Children of hospital workers attend Triangle school on a tuition basis. Triangle district No. 2, extends wedge-shaped from Appleton's west city limits south of Wisconsin avenue to the west boundary of the town of Grand Chute. The boundary between Triangle and Badger school district, which lies adjacent to the south, is half way between Wisconsin and college avenues. West of County Trunk A, Triangle district also includes the north side of Wisconsin avenue.

Tax Rate Low

Most of the district's business and industry is on Wisconsin avenue. It includes Valley Ready Mixed Concrete company; Winkler and Baker, Inc.; tires; Bauer Truck equipment, Inc.; Mueller Lumber company; Acme Frame and Axle Service, and Eisele Engineering.

The equalized valuation of the district is $2,220,300.

Last year, it cost about $5,310 to operate the Triangle school. At the last annual meeting, the district set a tax levy of $4,400, or about 2 mills on the equalized valuation. This rate, which has remained constant for 10 years, is considerably lower than rates of other rural schools and the Appleton school district.

Because the district's tax is less than three mills, it is not eligible for state or county aid.

Triangle residents also pay a 2.68 mill high school transportation and tuition tax, which they would continue to pay for one year after joining the city school system.

Predict Tax Hike

Because of the growing enrollment, Triangle school board members predict that if the district remains independent, the tax rate will have to be increased to the point where the district will be eligible for state aid.

As of June 30, 1959, the district had a balance on hand of $5,524, including a $2,000 bond. The district has no debt.

The school has a 3-member board: Ray Lodholz, director, Mrs. Lester Wilhams, treasurer, and Pennings, clerk.

Faces Problems

Since Triangle is a 1-room school, the city school system would not be likely to continue to operate it as it is for long if it were attached.

By taking in Triangle school, the city system would be faced with the same problems that the Triangle district has now—the population of the area is growing, and either the increasing number of children must be transported to some other school or more classrooms must be built for them.

Tuesday's referendum will decide who shall get Triangle's problems and its assets as of July 1.

A Blessing, Given During Soil Stewardship week, is pronounced by The Rev. Alfred Hietpas at Freedom. From left are Corneal DeJong, farm operator, Father Hietpas, William Ferrell, altar boy, John DeJong and Jacob DeJong. The farm has been in the DeJong family more than 100 years. A fourth generation is now operating it. The blessing of farm machinery, seeds and soil is a tradition during rogation days, the five days before Ascension Thursday. Soil Stewardship week, May 22 through Sunday, is set aside nationally as a time for farmers to be reminded that they are God's steward of the soil.

Conservation Measures

Soil Stewardship Week Time for Inventory of What Land Brings

BY JOE L. WALKER
Waupesa County Agent

The week of May 22-29 has been set aside as Soil Stewardship week, a time when all should take inventory of what is gotten from the soil and what is done in return to insure and maintain this land for future generations.

All depend heavily on the soil for existence. Today's farmer wants to pass this land on to a future generation in as good or a better condition than when he took it over. Gone are the days of plowing up and down the slopes, cutting off all trees and pasturing woodlots. Instead, a crooked furrow, laid out with the help of a soil conservation planner, is plowed. They now are called contour strips. If this won't stop erosion there are terraces, grass waterways, diversion and other methods of slowly and gently taking water off slopes. Our forefathers wouldn't go along with the present practices. Their pride was in the straight furrow, but their sorrow also was in the gullies that developed from straight furrows.

Importance Shown
A few facts and figures on soils will help one further realize the importance of conserving what now exists. Soil scientists say it takes nature 500-1,000 years to produce one inch of topsoil. By the same token one heavy rainfall can carry this inch of topsoil to some other area where it will block streams and create problems of flooding. Soil scientists also say that about one fourth of our topsoil has disappeared, washed off, never to be returned.

Soil is more than dirt that must be washed out of the clothing and off hands. It is our very means of existence. Hats should be off to farm operators and soil conservation men who are working hard to conserve soil.

The farm operator, the steward of the soil, is a businessman. He furdishes food and fiber for himself and 23 others. He is a member of one of the biggest businesses in the nation.

Big Customer
Some 37 per cent of all people in the United States are engaged in agriculture, processing, production and marketing. The production accounts for $100 billion worth of business annually. To industry, agriculture is a big customer at $14 billion annually. Experts say farmers sell about $30 billion worth of produce annually and the business created in assembling, processing and distributing of farm products exceeds $65 billion each year.

Today one can't pick out a farmer from a storekeeper or any other city businessman

Woman Sentenced for Early-Bird Mowing

Santa Barbara, Calif.—P.

Mrs. Orville E. Brady has been sentenced to 15 days in jail for mowing her lawn.

She did it at 6:30 in the morning — with a power mower.

A neighbor, Mrs. Howard Paul, complained. She said the racket awakened her and other residents, causing a disturbance.

Mrs. Brady told the court yesterday her husband has a heart condition and she was afraid he'd do the mowing if she didn't beat him to it. But she refused to say how long it had been since her husband was examined by a doctor.

try. Science students also will take second-year algebra, and as an extra subject, are recommended to take typing.

In the classical sequence, boys will take third-year Latin and either physics or algebra. Girls will take French or Latin and an elective.

Business Courses
The boys' business course includes a year of typing and a semester each of business law and economics.

Junior girls in the commercial course will take typing and, if they have an average of 85 or higher in English, will take shorthand.

The general course for boys includes a year of economic geography and a semester each of typing and crafts. The crafts course will consist mainly of woodworking with hand tools.

The general course for girls will include typing and either foods or art.

Prepare for College
Regardless of which course a student chooses, it will help him or her prepare for college, explained Brother L. Peter, F.S.C., Xavier principal. The school plans it this way because students may change their minds about their future plans, he said.

Subjects which will be taught at Xavier for the first time next year include French, typing, shorthand, foods, art, physics, chemistry, business law, economics and crafts. New physics, chemistry, typing and foods laboratories are being equipped for these classes.

To take care of the increased enrollment, ten new teachers will join the Xavier faculty.

Xavier's First Juniors Plan Class Schedules

New Labs Equipped, Teachers Hired for Additional Courses

Xavier High school's first junior class, this year's sophomores, has been preparing class schedules for next year that will include courses being taught for the first time at the Catholic high school.

Freshmen and sophomores at Xavier have been grouped into "tracks" mainly according to their abilities. As they enter their junior and senior years, students will be grouped more according to their career interests.

In each of the two departments, boys and girls, there will be four basic courses of study — scientific, classical, commercial or business and general.

Required Subjects

Regardless of their sex or course, all juniors will take four courses next year — religion, English, American history and physical education.

In the scientific course, boys will take physics while the girls take chemistry. The next year, girls will take physics while boys have chemistry.

Mike McCormick's 5 Hitter Boosts Giants' NL Lead

Dodgers Sweep Pirate Series, Jolt 3 Homers in 5-1 Success

By The Associated Press

There was nothing wrong with the San Francisco Giants that a 2-game series with the Philadelphia Phillies couldn't cure.

They went into Philadelphia in second place. Sam Jones, their right-handed ace won the opener with a 4-hit shut-out that put the Giants back in the National league lead. Wednesday night the Giants made it a sweep behind Mike McCormick's 5-hitter winning, 5-1, in a game cut to eight innings by rain and picking up a 1-game lead over second place Pittsburgh.

Frank Howard Whacks Ball About 550 Feet

Forbes Field Homer Nears Record Shot by Mantle

Pittsburgh — Frank Howard, Los Angeles' 240-pound rookie, has ended his first series in Pittsburgh with a bang — one that fell about 15 feet short of the longest homer ever hit in baseball.

The 6-foot-7 outfielder blasted a ball over Forbes field's left field wall Wednesday night, and it landed about 550 feet from the plate. The second-inning homer was a solo shot that helped defeat the Pirates, 5-1.

Asked what kind of pitch he hit off starter Jim Umbricht, Howard replied: "I think it was a slider thrown high. But I don't know. You know how it is when you're up there hitting. A ball player can't always tell what he hits."

Makes Estimate

The distance of Howard's big blow was estimated by Joe Tucker, Pittsburgh sportscaster. He was parking his car when the ball came zooming over the wall. He stepped off the distance from the wall to where the ball hit. All told it was at least 550 feet.

The longest homer ever recorded was clubbed by New York's Mickey Vernon, a 565-foot shot at Washington on April 17, 1933. Babe Ruth is said to have hit one farther, but that came in an exhibition game.

Last year Pittsburgh's Dick Stuart clubbed a homer that traveled 540-550 feet, longest in Forbes field history. It is believed that Howard's blast at least tied that mark.

Daywalt Quits Indianapolis 500-Miler

Indianapolis — Jimmy Daywalt of Indianapolis, who qualified the Bryant Heating special for the 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor speedway, said Wednesday night he will not drive in the race Monday.

Speedway veterans could recall no previous resignation of a driver after qualification. Daywalt announced his decision after getting only 137.5 miles an hour out of the car in carburetor tests. He said the Bryant crew had moved weight around so much in the car that its set-up had been changed completely.

Kimberly's Darrell Jansen checks the height of the bar with his coach, Gil Frank, during final preparations for the state Class B track meet Saturday in Ripon. Jansen will defend his titles in the high jump and in both hurdles events.

NOTES and NOTIONS

A new dimension has been added to the annual pre-Rose bowl speculation. Replacing the standard question: "Which team will the Big 10 send to the big bowl?" will be this one—"Will a Big 10 team be selected for the bowl?" The Big 10's revised vote, permitting participation on an individual school basis, provides a new flexibility, not only for its schools but for the Pacific Coast hosts. Henceforth, an invitation will probably be tendered to a Big 10 champion only if it is rated among the top three or four teams in the nation.

If this policy had been in effect last season, for instance, Syracuse almost surely would have been offered the Rose bowl berth opposite Washington. The 1959 Wisconsin team probably wouldn't have had enough national prestige to merit a bid. As a proponent of Rose bowl participation, I'm pleased Indiana's change of heart has kept the Big Ten in the picture—even though it may be less prominently from here on in. A re-evaluation, and a new vote, will doubtless be called for after Big 10 members have a chance to see what new problems or advantages are produced by this no-contract arrangement.

The American Football league will provide employment for quite a few surplus or previously-retired NFL players. Among gridgers familiar to Wisconsin fans who have already signed with, or are reported heading for, AFL teams are Al Carmichael, Jerry Helluin, Howie Ferguson, Ron Drzewiecki and Jim Haluska. Other bell-ringing names on inaugural rosters of Carmichael AFL clubs are quarterbacks George Blanda, Tommy O'Connell and Frank Tripucka.

Sioux City's early-season success has had an exhilarating effect on Manager Bobby Hofman. During his last visit to Green Bay, Hofman predicted his Soos would win the 3-I league pennant. No other pilot has felt inclined to go that far. Whether the Soos will win it is impossible to tell, but their veteran-stocked lineup should certainly be in the race all the way. Foxes Manager Earl Weaver rates Sioux City, Cedar Rapids and Green Bay as the toughest foes for his team.

Lost in the welter of "cut-down" news last week was Mike Garcia's release by the White Sox — apparently signaling trail's end for the burly right-hander. The "Big Bear," who got his baseball start with the Appleton Papermakers, won 142 big league games. Manager Al Lopez reportedly was reluctant to cut Garcia and said he hoped Mike would stay on as a batting-practice pitcher.

Vince Lombardi has no comment to make on Paul Hornung's revelation to a Chicago columnist that he had signed a new 3-year contract with the Packers. The forthcoming Packer announcement will purport that Hornung has signed for 1960 only. The National Football league's 1959 scoring leader made another bit of news earlier this week. His Kentucky driver's license was suspended because of an "extra point." He has been charged with 13 penalty points since February, 1959, one over the maximum for a 2-year period.

Kimberly Ace Defends 3 Titles In State Track, Field Meet

Kimberly's Darrell Jansen, one of the Fox Cities' all-time track greats, closes a memorable prep career Saturday at Ripon when he defends three state Class B titles.

In a probably-unprecedented 4-year career of record-smashing, Jansen has garnered the unofficial total of 85 firsts. Most of his wins have come in three specialties—the high hurdles, the low hurdles and the high jump—but in dual and triangular competition, the lanky athlete marvel has often taken the 100-yard dash as well.

Saturday, Jansen will defend championships in both hurdles and in the high jump. He already holds the state Class B record for the highs (14.25 seconds) and the lows (19.6). The low hurdles mark is equal to the best ever achieved in Class A.

Jansen's amazing log of records also includes these: low hurdles (20.35), high hurdles (14.5) and high jump (6-2) in the Green Bay sectional; low hurdles (20.5), highs (14.3) and high jump (tied for mark,

Crowe's Home Run Beats Braves, 5-3

Buhl, Mizell Slated to Duel Tonight

St. Louis — Don McMahon, took over on the mound for the Milwaukee Braves Wednesday night and unhappily helped set a new major league record. He threw a ninth-inning home run pitch to George Crowe, and St. Louis won, 5-3.

The record, in this case a

dismal statistic for the Braves, was Crowe's eleventh pinch home run.

Crowe connected with two out after his teammate, Bob Nieman, had singled. The ball seared away on a fancy flight and landed on the pavilion roof at the stadium. Crowe had shared the pinch-homer record with "Smoky" Burgess and Gus Zernial.

Milwaukee and St. Louis are scheduled to meet again tonight with Bob Buhl starting for the Braves on a 2-2 record against Wilmer "Vinegar Bend" Mizell, owner of a 1-2 count.

Just 3 Hits

Warren Spahn gave up only three hits in the eight innings he worked before being replaced by McMahon. But two of the three hits were home runs by Ken Boyer, once in the fourth inning and again in the sixth with the bases empty. Spahn gave up a third run in the second inning on two walks and a hit batsman.

The loss for Milwaukee dropped the third-place Braves four games behind the league-leading San Francisco Giants.

The Braves scored their first run in the initial inning, an unearned tally. Center

AHS Golfers Equal Record

Shoot 383 in Victory Over Oshkosh High

Appleton High school's powerful golfers totaled 383 Wednesday for the second time in three days, equalling Monday's lowest 5-player score since the sport was revived at AHS three seasons ago.

The hot-shooting gave Appleton an easy 25-stroke victory over Oshkosh High, 383-388, on the Oshkosh Municipal course.

The losers' Dave Graska was medalist with a 36-33-9 (1 under par). Appleton's like Smock was second low with a 39-34-73.

Other Terror scores were: John Manier, 40-37-77; Jimansen, 42-39-81; Jeff Martin, 39-36-75; John Nussbaum, 40-37-77. Other Oshosh tallies included: Schulz, 3-39-82; Felker, 41-39-80; Schmidt, 45-43-88; Hoffman, 7-44-89.

The victory was the Terror's sixth straight. Second-year players will probably represent Appleton in its final dual match Friday against Green Bay West at the Brown county course.

The Fox River Valley conference meet is slated for Appleton's Reid Municipal Saturday. If course conditions are don't permit play, action will be shifted to Sheogan.

fielder Bill White played slugger Hank Aaron's single ineffectively to score Eddie Mathews, on base with a walk. Joe Adcock doubled across the other two Milwaukee runs in the third inning following singles by Red Schoendienst and Mathews.

Wild Throw

Milwaukee had a chance to score in the eighth when Bill Bruton singled, stole second and continued to third as catcher Hal Smith got off a wild throw. Schoendienst popped to Daryl Spencer and Bruton had to hold. Mathews singled then but Coach George Myatt did not send Bruton in. Aaron fouled out and Adcock went down on a slow roller to Alex Grammas.

St. Louis hurler Larry Jackson worked the full nine innings, scattering nine hits for his third straight victory and raising his record to 4-5. He was knocked down in the fourth inning when Johnny Logan's line smash struck him in the shoulder and bounced away for a single. He resumed pitching after a brief delay.

The loss was McMahon's fourth against one victory.

Schwogler-Fischl Cop Regular Doubles Title In State Pin Tourney

Madison — (AP) — Connie Schwogler of Madison and Gil Fischl of Verona won the regular doubles crown in the 1960 Wisconsin State Bowling association tournament Wednesday night in a little play-off.

The Schwogler-Fischl combination totaled 1,246 against a 1,108 count by Harry Ludwig and Earl Lloyd of Janesville. The teams had finished in a first place tie with 1,289 totals in the tourney that ended Sunday.

Fischl scored a 632 series and Schwogler 614.

Owens Staged Track World's Biggest Show 25 Years Ago

Ann Arbor — (AP) — Twenty-five years ago Wednesday Jesse Owens streaked to ten world records and tied another in the greatest 1-man performance in track history.

Competing in the Big Ten track championships at the University of Michigan's Ferry field, the lithe, 21-year old Ohio State sophomore set world marks in the 220-yard dash, 220-yard low hurdles and the broad jump. He also tied the universal 100-yard dash record.

Owens' record-shattering feats were clicked off within a 45-minute span on that sun-splashed afternoon as 10,000 startled disbelieving fans watched in amazement.

The incredible performance began when Owens, defying an aching back that had plagued him for two weeks, entered the meet anyway and tied the world mark of 9.4 seconds in the 100-yard dash in his first event.

Can Go All Out

Red Gets More Good News From His Doctor

St. Louis — (AP) — Red Schoendienst, of the Milwaukee Braves, got more good news from his doctor Wednesday—he can continue playing a full nine innings indefinitely.

"Red was intelligent enough to take it easy this spring," said Dr. William A. Werner. "Now that he is in excellent shape, pacing himself is no longer necessary."

Schoendienst rejoined the team late last year after recovering from a bout with tuberculosis. He put in only token appearances, however.

At the start of the training sessions this year, Manager Charlie Dressen had some misgivings about Schoendienst's physical capabilities. Dressen was counting on putting rookie Chuck Cottier on the list as a regular. But he didn't have to worry.

Common Sense
Schoendienst began working out slowly and day by day increased the time stretch on the field. He was in top shape, but he was still under his doctor's orders to use common sense and avoid exhaustion, no matter how strong the will to drive harder.

However, the 37-year-old veteran turned in such sparkling performances that Dressen dispatched Cottier to the minors. Red was working as though he had never been away from the team.

"We're all elated at his splendid comeback," Dr. Werner said. "It has been a pleasant surprise to all of us. But knowing Red it actually shouldn't be a surprise."

Schoendienst said he feels as well today after nine innings of baseball as he did at the start of his first season.

In the 5-3 loss to St. Louis Wednesday night he had one hit in four trips to the plate. He lead the league at one point this season but now admits he's in a slump at .255.

"I'll get better though," Schoendienst said. "I'll be getting my hits again."

Roosevelt Cops Junior High Track Meet

Wilson Equals Champs' Points in Running Events

Defending champion Wilson matched Roosevelt point-for-point in Wednesday's track events but couldn't overcome a gap in lead. Roosevelt had rolled up in Tuesday's field events and Roosevelt won the annual city junior high school track meet Wednesday's action was at Wilson.

Final point totals were Roosevelt, 113; Wilson, 77, and Madison, 35. Both Roosevelt and Wilson tallied 53 points Wednesday to Madison's 19.

Roosevelt's Peter Pankratz ran the seventh grade 50-yard dash in .063, the best clocking in the event in the last 20 years. It lowered the "modern" (since 1940) record of .065, set by Roosevelt's I. Spanenberg in 1945 and tied by Roosevelt's Bill Caesar in 1956. But, L. Brasch of Wilson turned in a .062 in 1931.

Equals Record

Wilson's Jerry Bishop turned the ninth grade 50-yard dash in .059 which equalled the since-1940 mark established by McKinley's D. Purdy in 1946 and equalled by Roosevelt's Jack Navarrete in 1957. The overall standard in the event is a .058 by Roosevelt's J. Dutcher in 1933.

Roosevelt set the meet record in the all-school relay, running the event in 2:25.8. That broke the former standard of 2:27.0 established by Roosevelt's team of R. Kunstman, D. Kopplin, Russ Poeszlin, D. Adam, K. Weber and II. Krueger in 1945.

Roosevelt team members were Mark Strosahl, Dan Piper, seventh grade, Ken Kitzinger and Gary Schoenhaar eighth grade, Bill Karrow and Dale Uecker, ninth grade. Roosevelt's "Skip" MacDonald, who had won two eighth grade events Tuesday, captured two more Wednesday, the 50 and 100-yard dash. In addition to his record-setting 50-yard dash effort Pankratz also copped the 100-yard dash—in 12 seconds flat, and ran on the winning Roosevelt 840 yard relay team. Bishop, besides copping the ninth

Joe Louis Firm Signs $287,000 Deal With Castro Government

New York — Joe Louis won't have much part in his public relation firm's attempt to lure tourists to Cuba. The firm of Louis, Rowe, Fisher, Lockhart Enterprises, Inc., signed a $287,000 annual contract with Fidel Castro's government but an associate said Wednesday the former heavyweight champ was not actively engaged in the deal.

Alvin Lockhart, a firm partner, explained "I brought in the account Joe is busy with two other accounts — Ehlers Coffee and the Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson heavyweight championship bout."

Louis' own comment was "We have nothing to do with politics and nothing to do with Castro. We are concerned solely in developing tourism in Cuba."

Lockhart is from New York and Oak Bluffs, Mass. Other partners in the Negro company are William L. Rowe, a former New York city deputy police commissioner, and Charles Bennett Fisher of St. Albans, Queens.

The firm registered with the justice department as an agent for the Castro government.

Manci Elected Bobcat President

Green Bay—James Manci, of Green Bay, has been elected president of Green Bay Hockey, Inc., sponsor of the Central Hockey league champion Bobcats.

Manci, named to a 1 year term, succeeds A. S. "Red" Paynter of De Pere, who had headed the hockey club since it was founded in 1958.

Other officers elected include Arthur Schmalz, Kaukauna, vice president; and Charles Hanaway, Green Bay, secretary-treasurer.

Co-leading IPC and Interlake meet clubs which are still in search of their first American Industrial Softball league wins—Police and Elm Tree, respectively—in next Tuesday's action.

Three tight games marked last Tuesday's results. Coated Paper shaded Miller Electric, 13-12, on Ronald Barr's run scoring single in the last half of the eighth. Gerald Cavert homered for the winners who erased a 6-1 deficit at the end of the first.

Interlake nudged the Post-Crescent, 3-2, on a 3-hit by Bobby Diener. He struck out 13. Losing pitcher "Sonny" Kneepkens allowed five hits and fanned eight. All runs were unearned.

IPC pocketed a 7-6 win over AAL. The winners' Dick Cornell walloped a grand slam homer in the third. Don Gilbert picked up the win. Don Schroeder, who allowed six hits, took the loss.

Tryouts Set July 1-2

U.S. Outlook in Olympic Distance Races Gloomy

Columbus, Ohio — (AP)—America's outlook in the distance races at the 1960 Olympics is a gloomy one.

America has won four of the last six 400-meter races, but prospects in Rome are not too brilliant. Three West Indians took the top medals in the 1959 Pan-American games. All three are attending college in the United States, but they'll represent their home lands in the Olympics.

Top man of this small group of greats is George Kerr, the 400 and 800-meter specialist from U. of Illinois and Jamaica. He won the 400-meter, anchored the 1,600-meter relay and finished second to Tom Murphy of New York in the 800-meter in the Pan Am games.

Our representatives will be named in the July 1-2 tryouts at Palo Alto, Calif., but they must match the standards of 47.3 for the 400, and 1:49.2 for the 800.

Dave Mills of Purdue, Jack Yerman of California, Eddie Southern of Austin, Texas, and Delos Dodds of Kansas were our best a year ago in the 400-meter. Glenn Davis of Columbus, who holds the quarter-mile record of 45.7, is a threat in both the 400 meter run and hurdles.

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST

By Hal Sharp
LARGEMOUTH BASS TRICK

RETRIEVE ON BOTTOM. KEEP BOAT CLOSE TO BANK.

LARGE BASS SEEK THE DEEPER WATER DURING DAYTIME WHEN THE WEATHER IS WARM. IF NOT TROLLING, FISH OFF POINTS THAT SLOPE TOWARD DEEP WATER. RETRIEVE LURE (PLASTIC WORM OR EEL ON A LEAD-HEADED JIG WITH WEEDLESS HOOKS) SLOWLY TOWARD SHALLOW WATER. VARY THIS SLOW, INCHING RETRIEVE WITH SEVERAL SHORT SPIRITS, THEN LETTING LURE SINK AGAIN. ADD A REST EVERY 40-TO 20 FEET.

DRAG BOTTOM!

In the 800-meter, only Murphy was listed in the top 10 internationally last year. In April Ernie Cunliff of Stanford ran a brilliant 1:47.3, and later qualified in the mile. Bob Tague of Kansas caught Kerr from 10 yards back in the Drake relays. A week later eight half-milers in California were under 1:51.

Top USA milers include Jim Grelle of Portland, Ore.; Ed Moran of James City, Pa.; Archie San Roman, Jr., of Wichita, Kan.; Jim Bowlers of Illinois, and Don Bowden. Others yet to reach their peak may work into the picture.

The steeplechase — 3,000 meters of it — is not one of our specialties. Horace Ashenfelter of Penn State upset the Russian world in 1952 with his great victory, but this is Russia's event since it has five men in the top 10 ranking.

Phil Coleman of Champaign, Ill., and Deacon Jones of Coffeyville, Kan., have been our best for several years.

By no stretch of the imagination can the 5,000 and 10,000-meter races, or the marathon, be considered our domain.

The Olympic standard in the 10,000 meter is lower than our national record. Only Bill Dellinger of Oxnard, Calif., and Max Truex of Warsaw, Ind., have bettered the 5,000 meter standard.

Memorial Day weekend's on the way. Now's the time to get the right tires—at the right price—for your summer driving.

Buying the right tire is as easy as B-F-G

Heavy summer driving...

the Premium-Quality B.F. Goodrich "HT." Turnpike drivers who pile up mileage at superhighway speeds need a premium-quality tire that can take it. The new premium-quality B.F. Goodrich "HT" has an extra-wide, extra-deep tread on top of 4 plies of extra-strong nylon cord. Gives 22% more mileage than a regular, first-quality tire for only about $3 more!

$29.95 NYLON $24.60 NYLON
WHITEWALL TUBELESS 6.70-15 or 7.50-14
Plus tax and your refundable tire

Normal summer driving...

the First-Quality BFG "Silvertown." Most drivers make scores of short trips around town during summer plus a long vacation jaunt. They need a first-quality tire like the BFG "Silvertown"—the tire auto makers put through severe tests, then chose for their 1960 cars. Its new "Quiet Rubber" takes the squeal out of corners... gives a really smooth ride!

$27.40 TYRES $22.35 TYRES
WHITEWALL TUBELESS 6.70-15 or 7.50-14
Plus tax and your refundable tire

Light summer driving...

the Economy-Type BFG "Safety-S." If you spend your summers around home—just do a lot of short-trip driving—your best value is an economy tire like the B.F. Goodrich "Safety-S." It has a wide, ground-gripping, 7-rib tread for skid protection on slick streets and safe, quick stops in city traffic. We believe there's no better value in economy tires than the B.F. Goodrich "Safety-S."

Minnesota's Nathe Leads Loop Hitters

Tops Big 10 With .483 Mark, Shares First in RBIs

Chicago — Minnesota's league leader has moved into the Big Ten's No. 1 batting spot.

Official conference baseball statistics today showed Nathe with a .483 average. He also shares the runs batted in lead with teammate Wayne Knapp, Paul Michaels of Indiana and Dave Brown of Michigan. Each has 10.

Joe McCabe of Purdue, last week's batting leader, dropped to second with .438. Illinois' Ethan Blackaby boosted his average 61 points to .436 to take third place, followed by Knapp with .429 and Northwestern's Denny Lundgren with .423.

In the pitching department, Larry Bertelsen of Minnesota has the best won-lost record with 4-0. Ohio State's Paul Seitz retained his strikeout lead with 34. Minnesota is first in team batting with .307, followed by Illinois with .269. Michigan State leads the team fielding list with .963 while Indiana has .938.

2 New Grid Coaches Hired At Seymour

June Graduates Of LaCrosse State To Assume Duties

Seymour—Two June graduates of LaCrosse State college have been hired to take over the football program at Seymour Union High school for the 1960-61 season.

Contracts of John Thomsen, 23, Milwaukee, and James H. Becker, 21, East De Pere, have been received by the high school board of education. Both were recommended by Supt. L. D. Culver.

Don Chambers asked to be relieved of duties as head football coach for the coming season after three years in that post. Chambers was named assistant basketball coach at Seymour and will continue to head the boys' physical education program.

Head Varsity Mentor

Thomsen, who will act as head varsity coach, will teach American history and social studies. He majored in physical education at LaCrosse and minored in history.

He played four years on the LaCrosse grid eleven, serving as co-captain in his senior year. As a senior, Thomsen was named to the Wisconsin state college all conference squad, National Collegiate Little All-American; picked on the second team of the National Alliance All-American; competed in the All-American bowl at Tempe, Ariz., in 1959 and played in the Optimist bowl at Tucson, Ariz., in 1960.

His assistant, played four years of high school football at East De Pere but none at LaCrosse where he majored in physical education and minored in mathematics. Becker was hired to teach mathematics and will replace Joseph Jersey of Clintonville who has accepted a grant to continue further study in Iowa.

Gathering at Oneida

Indian Village to Form Background for Pow Wow

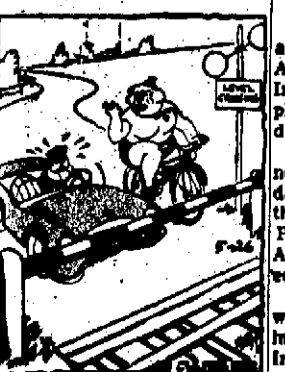

Oneida — One of the most complete Indian villages assembled in northeastern Wisconsin in the last 50 years will be open to public display this weekend here.

Free to the public, the Indian village will illustrate wigwags, teepees, Indian cooking methods, basket weaving, bead making and many other characteristic activities of the original American.

The Indian village will form the backdrop for an extensive Indian pow wow near Oneida Saturday through Monday.

The village will be located on what formerly was the CCC

Council No Smoking Rule Again Up for Discussion

Some city aldermen are getting up for a smoke merely because they are tired of sitting through all the reading that goes on, such as long ordinances that set forth grade elevations for certain streets.

No action on the resolution was taken by the board of public works, which will study the matter further.

One board member suggested a rule might be written making it necessary for aldermen to get the mayor's permission to leave. When the mayor had excused six aldermen, no more would be allowed out.

Tipsy Driver Fined $100

Black Creek Man Also Will Lose Driver's License

Edward H. Felton, 21, Black Creek, was fined $100 Wednesday by Municipal Court Judge Oscar J. Schmieg on a drunken driving charge. He also will lose his driver's license for a year.

Felton was arrested by county police March 4 after they found his car standing partially on Highway 45 east of Hortonville. He was trying to start the engine when police arrived. During the physician's examination, Felton said he could not blow up the balloon.

Before trial Felton's attorney requested an adverse examination of Patrolman E. A. Welch but Welch, upon advice of Corporation Counsel Raymond P. Dohr, declined. Judge Schmieg ordered the examination but it was never made.

Accountants Pick City Man New Chairman

Vincent K. Kerscheld, 328 E. Harris street, has been elected chairman of the northern chapter of the Wisconsin Certified Public Accountants.

Herbert F. Kiekhaefer, 1715 Highland avenue, was named secretary - treasurer. Robert E. Stauffer, Oshkosh, is chairman-elect.

John J. Canning, Green Bay and Darold D. Brockhaus, Wausau, were named directors.

Approve Money for Fox River Project

Washington — The house today by a vote of 387 to 18 approved the public works appropriation bill for the fiscal year commencing July 1, which includes $367,000 for complete improvement of the upper Fox river.

Aurora Youth Gets Academy Appointment

Rep. John W. Byrnes announced today in Washington that Martin J. Neuens, of Aurora, Florence county, has been selected to receive his 1960 appointment to the Air Force academy.

Style Show Set As Village Will Mark 50 Years

Kimberly — Initial steps have been taken to acquaint women in the village with rules for competing in the Bustlette style revue and the selection of a "belle" for the Golden Jubilee celebration July 21 through Aug. 6 in the village.

Mrs. Richard Kane is general chairman for the style revue assisted by Mrs. Harry Rector and Mrs. Robert Keil. Representatives of the promotion company, hired to assist in planning, will assist the committee in setting up the contest.

Buttons for the Jubilee Bustlettes are available at village stores and with this button a certificate of vote coupon is given. This entitles a person to one vote and makes them eligible to compete in any contest category.

Bustlettes will assist in publicizing the week's event. The style show will be judged on the basis of authenticity including fabrics, accessories

Kewaunee Man Lions' District Governor

Ranch, Modern Score Wins In Opening of Tavern Loop

Kaukauna — Ranch Bar and Modern Bar scored wins in opening games in the 16-inch softball Tavern League competition Tuesday night.

Ranch pounded 15 hits in downing Power's Tavern 8-4. The winners scored six runs in the third inning on six singles and a double by Mike Kerkhof and added two in the fourth on three singles, a walk and a fielder's choice. Kerkhof led the winners with three hits in four trips and had the only extra base blow for the winners.

Powers scored a run in the first inning on a single and triple by Jerry Nagel and added three in the second on two singles, a triple by Bert Lopes and a fielder's choice. The losers managed six more singles the balance of the way but were unable to push over any runs. Lopes, Nagel, Pete Peters and George Brautigan each had two hits for the losers.

Vic Diedrich twirled a neat and style. Cash prizes will be awarded winners.

Legion Picnic Opens Friday

Kaukauna — Opening the picnic season in the Fox Cities will be the 4-day celebration of the American Legion at LaFollette park.

The affair, including rides, refreshments and lunch stands, will get underway Friday and run through Monday. Special prices for children's

Nitingale 4-H Club To Enter Two Teams in County Softball Loop

Kaukauna — Members of the Nitingale 4-H club voted to sponsor two entrants in the Outagamie County 4-H Softball League this summer with Delyle Bowers to serve as captain and manager for one team while Robert Lambie will captain the second.

A donation was approved for the 4-H Foundation and it was announced the club had received a blue ribbon for a float entered in the Rural Youth Day parade at Appleton. Entertainment consisted of a comedy skit by Ruth and Alice Van Zeeland.

Caravan Will Help Promote Village Jubilee

Kimberly — A caravan of fun to publicize the Golden Jubilee celebration of the village will assemble at the village hall Sunday morning preparatory to traveling to Freedom to participate in the VFW and Volunteer firemen's picnic.

Whiskered men wearing derbys and women in bustles are asked to join with Belle candidates to make the trip at 10 a.m. After visiting in Freedom the group will ride to Kaukauna for an appearance at the Legion picnic.

The Jubilee celebration will run from July 31 to Aug. 6 with the athletic field to be the scene of a midway and carnival. Stage shows are also planned. Official buttons, now on sale, will serve as admission to all activities with the exception of the Grand Ball.

C of C Advised To Help Build A Better City

Oshkosh Secretary Tells of Need for Educating People

Kaukauna — Making the town a better place to live and work and building for future generations is one of the main purposes of a Chamber of Commerce, according to Ben Pitcher, secretary of the Oshkosh unit, speaker for the Tuesday night meeting of the local group.

It is the responsibility of a Chamber of Commerce to educate people in the city about the advantages of the city and about the economics, politics and development of the community, according to Pitcher. He urged businessmen to be loyal to a political party and to enter politics on a local or state level.

Speakers' Bureau
He advocated a speakers' bureau, made up of Chamber of Commerce members, to appear before sixth, seventh and eighth graders in school or before organizations to explain the American free enterprise system, the economics in business and the political situation of the community.

Individuals in a community must accept and support progress and Chamber of Commerce members have a duty to point out the advantages or good things about the town. A people must be ready to accept progress and new industry before industry can be attracted, said Pitcher.

He traced the development of the Chamber of Commerce from feudal times when merchants governed the walled cities to our present day. Through making the town better and helping it to grow, Chamber of Commerce members prosper and benefit, indicated the speaker.

Plans were discussed for a Chamber promotion to welcome a convention of the National Campers and Hikers' association to be held at the Grignon home grounds the first weekend in June. Over 100 trailers are expected to be set up on the grounds.

Open discussion was held on parking, BIE day and the use of slogans by all businessmen to help promote the city. The slogans will be on all business envelopes and will carry some message about the community rather than about the business itself.

Plans were made for an August meeting at LaFollette park. Aldermen were special guests at the meeting and it was announced, the city council would be invited to all future Chamber functions.

Arlene Geenen. The queen and her court will ride in the parade at 11 a.m. Sunday. The picnic opens Saturday and runs through Monday.

12 Girl Scouts In Village Earn Curved Bars

Little Chute — Twelve girls of Troop 208 received the curved bar award, highest award, in intermediate scouting, at a dinner and candle light ceremony for Girl Scouts and their parents Tuesday night.

This is the first troop in the village to have girls achieve the rank. Pins were presented by fathers of the girls. Guest speaker was Joseph Vander Burgt, president of the Kiwanis club, sponsors of the troop. Receiving curved bars were Patricia Driessen, Sharon Driessen, Carol Stadler, Lois Van De Hey, Mary Spierings, Mary Lamers, Janice Johnson, Mary Tiesling, Rebecca Vander Wyl, Mary Vander Pulten, Margaret Kuhn and Carol Hermen.

Firemen Called for Bowling Alley Fire

Kimberly — Minor damage was reported in a fire at Jerry's Lanes, a combination bowling alley and bar, 114 N. Main street, about 1:10 a. m. Wednesday.

Volunteer firemen were called when excessive smoke was noted in the business district. Firemen found a smoldering fire in the pits of one of the bowling lanes and extinguished the fire before damage resulted. A discarded cigarette is believed to have started the fire.

On the House

Charlie Impressed With Work of Columnists on State's Weeklies

BY CHARLES HOUSE

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

I have been perusing the columnar output of Wisconsin's weekly newspaper editors for it is presently my job to judge which of my country cousins writes the "best local column."

Many of the columns I have been studying are nothing less than superb. Weakness, where I have found it, is rare, but seems almost always to be the result of the pressure of time. And I know full well that the hardest working fellows who labor in the vineyard in which I am occupied are the weekly newspaper editors.

The columns which I am to judge are submitted by the editors themselves and we must presume they submit columns which they regard as their better ones. It is my chore to read a minimum of three issues of their annual output and I can see from time to time where one or another fellow columnist has produced his stint under great time pressure. It is very hard to write a pretty, small story while under pressure, but my cohorts in the weekly field do an amazingly good job.

Today, let us look at some of the good, small stories which flow from the typewriter of my friends of the weekly column:

One very good small autumn story appeared in "The Pyramid" of the Lake Mills Leader, thus:

"Talking to John Choon Heng Lee of Malaya during Rotary's Foreign weekend, past president of the Lions club. When he won the drawing it was observed that the cake had frosting which bore the Rotary emblem.

The columnist reported that one Bob Betzer said: "It is certainly a pleasure to force a Rotary emblem down the throat of this Lion president."

neatly and concisely. A few examples of his art:

"When lilacs last the door-yard bloomed" is not merely quoting the poets, claims Charley Anderson, Star News ad man and Dutch Uncle to every kid in town. His doorbell was rung one evening last week by two youngsters who presented him with a big bouquet of budding lilacs. Naturally they were awarded with a dime by Charley, who later discovered that the lilacs had been picked off his own bush.

The weekly editor can be gallant where a city reporter cannot always conform to the principles of gallantry. On a story about an elderly lady, for example, a city reporter would be reprimanded if he failed to report the lady's specific age. It's expected and demanded or the story is not considered complete. Not to the city editor.

But in one of the stories in Hirsch's column, I read a 6-paragraph story about an elderly lady. The final paragraph was gallant, for here is how writer Hirsch put it:

"Her son, Dr. F. J. Martin, of Medford, told us her age, but age is a relative thing to Tillie, so let's say she is pretty well up there."

One very good columnist is Bob Wright of the Montello Tribune and I do not know how I will be able to avoid choosing his work as among the best of the field. Describing his son, Wright says "he is an appetite, six feet three inches tall and eight inches wide, an avid athlete who believes the world is a basketball or vice versa!

In a recent all-out response to questions he said are asked by readers, Wright published a long column of answers, like this:

Q. Why don't you print in color, say red; once in a while?

A. Our entire supply of red ink is used in the bookkeeping department.

Q. Why don't you have funny papers?

A. We think we have the funniest paper in Wisconsin right now.

Q. Why do you say "we" when referring to yourself in the paper?

A. We want our readers to think they are outnumbered.

Q. What's the reason you don't replace that linotype you're always complaining about?

A. $15,000.

Q. Why don't you run a column of excerpts from Tribunes of years gone by?

A. We used to. But once we published an item from 40 years back about a baby girl being born to Mr. and Mrs. Blank. Trouble was that this baby girl had been telling everybody she was only 34. . . .

Q. How come you always sound off in the paper?

A. See statement of ownership of Tribune filed in the office of registrar of deeds.

Q. Why don't you print weekly sermons?

A. Why doesn't the preacher run the newspaper?

Q. What would you give me for writing a weekly column of moral, homespun philosophy for the Tribune?

A. A poke in the eye with a sharp stick.

In the Plymouth Review, columnist Art Mueller, too, has a common touch and is an able fellow with pithy phrases. Some of them follow:

Man may berate the lowly mosquito but it must be remembered that it was the first skin diver.

The most serious obstacle to preserving peace throughout the world is the fact that there are more dogs than bones.

Fishing isn't expensive but it is hard to convince the wife that one needs four pounds of bait to catch one pound of fish.

"Last fall," wrote Mr. Mueller, we understood a young Plymouth lady told her boy friend that she wouldn't marry him until he had $1,000 saved. Several weeks ago she asked him how much he had saved. He answered sheepishly, "about $435."

Class Reunion For 1954 KHS Grads Planned

Kaukauna — Members of the 1954 graduating class of Kaukauna High school will hold a reunion Saturday at the Elks clubrooms opening with a 5:30 p.m. social followed by a 6:30 dinner.

Special guests will be Olin Dryer, former principal, and Mrs. Dryer. Serving as toastmaster will be Donald Brown. Dancing will round out the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Renicke are serving as general chairmen assisted by Mr. and Mrs. John Forester, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Jansen, Mr. and Mrs. William Landreman, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schmidt and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton DeBruin.

Combined Locks Dance Set to Benefit Church

Combined Locks — Plans are underway for a benefit dance to be held from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. June 5 in the Village Pavilion to help raise funds for a new organ for St. Paul's Catholic church.

Co-sponsors of the event are the Holy Name society and Altar society of the parish.

Members of the planning committee include Roger Jansen, Jack Seigel, John Rietveld, Mrs. Richard Ristau and Mrs. LaVerne Lamers.

Youth Learns Car Horseplay Is Bad Policy

Kaukauna — Richard A. Schmidt, 16, 801 Blackwell street, found horseplay with a car was a poor policy when he pleaded guilty to two counts of reckless driving when arraigned before Oscar T. Jahns, justice of the peace, Wednesday morning.

Schmidt was ordered to pay court costs and had his driver's license suspended for six months on the first count and was fined $10 and had his driver's license revoked for six months on the second count. The youth will have to wait a year before being permitted to take a driver's test to get a new license.

The first charge was on a citizen complaint after Schmidt was noted driving at a high rate of speed near Park school on Desnoyer street about 11:50 a. m. Tuesday. The second charge was on a police arrest made about 3:30 p. m. Tuesday when he was noted driving recklessly on Oak street near the high school as students were coming from classes.

Justice Jahns informed the youth of his endangering school children by his conduct and warned against showing off again when he managed to get his driver's license returned.

Kaukauna Man Posts $15 Speeding Bond

Little Chute — Raymond A. Klatt, 105 Taylor street, Kaukauna, posted $15 bond and signed a stipulation of guilt to a charge of speeding Wednesday morning.

Klatt was arrested by police Saturday.

Big Attraction on Memorial Weekend
The Memorial Day weekend will find many motorists traveling to Door county to look at the cherry blossoms which usually are in full bloom about this time. Although the unusual spring weather caused a little heart-fluttering for the orchard owners, the trees are expected to have a normal crop. The weather also controls the opening of the buds and consequently any great temperature change would have an adverse effect on the blossoms. Besides the acres and acres of beauty, the peninsula has many other attractions to offer. Scenic spots overlook the bay and Lake Michigan. In traveling to the Door county area, it is wise to take your camera along. Colored film will provide lasting memories of one of the state's beauty spots in the spring.

COOKING OUT-OF-DOORS is run for both young and old. Here, three teenagers are enjoying their efforts to fix a meal at a park grill. Many communities have fireplaces and grills at picnic sites for public use.

equipment worked in the 200-foot depths. A wire cable is used as the line, the reel is the deep-sea fishing type and a sturdy rod is required.

The only exception is in the early spring when the trout move into the shallows to spawn and some are taken with casting equipment.

The rest of the season finds them in the deeper areas where trolling is necessary. When hooked they provide a scrappy battle as many of the fish run to large size. Trout in the 16-pound area are not uncommon and some as heavy as 34 pounds have been caught.

Rainbow Trout

In addition to the lake trout, the ever popular rainbow trout has flourished in the lake. These fish are taken in the shallows in spring and then move into the depths as the summer temperatures climb. Rainbows do not go to the depths that lake trout will.

When fishing Green Lake it would be wise for the newcomer or inexperienced angler to make use of guide facilities. There is a lot more to trout fishing than can be learned in one day or through angling experience with other species.

Fishery experts at Ann Arbor, Mich., with an eye to the future, released 82,000 young lake trout in Lake Michigan this month.

It is the hope of the experts that constant work on the control of the sea lamprey will pay off and that the trout will make a comeback in the lake.

In the 1940's, the lake trout was abundant in Lake Michigan but when the waters became lamprey infested the trout population dropped to practically nothing.

If the move proves successful, Lake Michigan could return to its former status as a top lake trout producer, both commercially as well as fishing-wise.

The return of the trout would mean a lot to Wisconsin, too. Deep-sea type trolling for the trout is a sport which only a few anglers held fond memories of now.
